Fair time in Embro

Sterk, 15 months, of RR 4 Embro, with his mother Marian. Looking on is fair queen Jolene Chambers. There were about 35 babies entered in the contest; the 1992 Pumpkin Princess and Prince are Lindsay Meadows, of RR 1 Embro and Paul Wiper, of RR 3 Embro; The Embro Fire Department demonstrated the Jaws of Life and explained how they work.

EMBRO — A large crowd attended the Saturday night show at the Embro and Zorra Agricultural Fair with figure skater Paul Matheson, Canadian Novice Dance Pair Gold Medalist, officially opening the fair.

The local entertainment — He Said, She Said — salon featured the Embro Theatre Group sponsored by the Embro and Zorra Agricultural Society.

Among attractions Sunday were young emus from Bushwalker Emu Breeders, of RR 5 Embro, a mini tractor pull for children, and a Nintendo Rally, a new computer event sponsored by the Embro and West Zorra Optimist Club.

As well, there were the usual tug-of-war matches. Six teams participated with Ellice taking five wins and no losses. Innerkip and Windsor placed second and third and South Easthope and Zorra claimed 4th and 5th while Nissouri finished 6th. There were also exhibition matches where metal cleat boots were not allowed. The fair continued Monday with a parade in the morning and the heavy horse and pony shows. As well, there was the 4-H Calf Club Achievement Day and the Holstein and sheep show.

Monday's activities also included an apple cider making demonstration, apple doll and apple butter demonstrations, exhibits and the midway.
