

Accepting a donation from the Zorra Caledonian Society's president Gordon Green is Zorra Highland Park's Home and School Association president Deb Ball. Many of the students participated in events at the July 1 Highland Games. (Laura Green Photo)

These smiling faces belong to Zorra Figure Skating Club's Canskate skaters who recently passed their badges at the Embro Community Centre. Back, Jessica Bereg, Kayla Harmer, Chantal Montgomery, Jason Dunlop, Mark Steen and Bryden Rutherford. Front, Alica McCall, Chantell VanRyswyck, Christine Beckett, Rikki Matthews, Masmine VandenBerge and Mariah Zinn. (Laura Green Photo)

What should I bid for? - the question on everyone's mind at the annual silent auction for 1st Embro Scouting. Just over 100 bidders examined and placed bids on the 200 plus donated items from businesses, friends of the scouting movement and families involved in 1st Embro at the Embro Legion. (Laura Green Photo)

Inspired by a story The Biggest Pumpkin Ever by Steven Kroll, Mrs. Redman's Grade 1 students at Zorra Park created their own wall hanging quilt entitled Pumpkins and Mice. Each student embroidered a square outline stitch. It was pieced together with a fall print by Mary Walton (left), whose granddaughter Emily helped. (Laura Green Photo)