

August 19, 1943.

A large gathering of Institute members, visitors and girls attended the regular monthly meeting at Mrs Charles Matheson's.

The meeting opened in the usual way, with the Institute Ode followed by the Lords prayer and Creed in unison.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. Donations for money to the sugar fund would be very welcome.

The program was in charge of the citizenship committee.

Mrs Donald Innes gave a splendid talk on the motto "Love rules without a thorn and binds without a sword."

Miss Winnie Glenham accompanied by Annie Jean Symons sang "Coming in on a wing and a prayer".

Miss Ina Mc Kay gave an interesting paper on the "Sorting and Storing of vegetables for winter and the Care of House plants."

Annie Jean Symons favored the meeting with an instrumental on the piano.

A discussion on Saccharine pickles was followed by Community Singing.

After singing "God save the King" lunch was served. Collection was $3.35 Red Cross collection.
