

Dec. 15, 1943

The regular monthly meeting of the Institute was held at the home of Mrs Wallace Gibb with 17 in attendance.

Mrs Joan McDonald presided in the absence of the president who was ill.

The meeting opened with the Institute Ode followed by the Lord's prayer and the Creed repeated in unison.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

The report of the War Charities Fund was read.

It was moved by Mrs C. Lindsay that Jean Symons be Red Cross representative and seconded by Mrs Russell Jones.

Moved by Mrs Geo. Green seconded by Mrs A. Bean that Mrs Wallace Mc Kenzie be the alternative.

A list of the sick and shut-ins was given to the Sec. to be remembered at Xmas with cards.

Roll Call was well responded to with a Xmas thought.

A very interesting report of the London Convention was given by Mrs Geo. Green. And Tretta Clark reported the practical talk given by Mrs Gardiner at Embro on Nov 29 and a demonstration was given on using triangular bandages.

Miss Lois Rowland gave a splendid talk on the motto "Thoughts by the way".

After Xmas Carols were sung and after singing God save the King lunch was served.
