

THREE MEMBERS of Junior Homemaking Clubs of Peterborough county watch one of the machines working at the Brinton-Peterborough Carpet Co. The visit to this company was part of a tour which 81 club members took in the city Tuesday. Left to right are: Margaret Last, Ballieboro; Effie McMillan, Warsaw, and Mrs. William Hornsby, Havelock. Mrs. Hornsby is a club leader. Florence White is demonstrating the machine.—(E) Certificates Presented.

81 Junior Homemakers Look Over Peterborough

A dinner at the Y.W.C.A. Tuesday evening was the highlight of a day spent in Peterborough by 81 members of the Junior Homemaking Clubs of Peterborough County. The group arrived in the city in the morning and toured the Silverwoods plant. In the afternoon they toured the Quaker Oats Co. and the Brinton-Peterborough Carpet Co.

The girls were the dinner guests of the Peterborough Federation of Agriculture and the Women's Institute of Peterborough district.

Henry Sharpe, president of the Peterborough Federation of Agriculture spoke briefly and expressed the interest and of the federation in the girls' clubs.

Frank Paterson, agricultural representative for Peterborough county, congratulated the club leaders on the work they had achieved.

Mrs. Harry of Buckhorn, president of the Women's Institute of Peterborough district presented certificates of achievement to the following girls who had completed two or more projects: 10 projects—Norma Ellis, Belmont; four projects—Joan Hornsby, Belmont; Marjón Bothwell, Fraserville; Marie Drain and Donna Payne, both of Warsaw; two projects—Laura Hazeldon, Isabella Kidd, Yvonne Pilkington, Arnell Wood, Marion Syer, all of Ballieboro; Dora Elmhirst, Belmont; Betty Allen, Mary Cockburn, Gwen McKee, all of Fairview; Beverley Bennett, Dorothy Graham, Jean Kennedy, Lois McKay, all of Havelock; Doreen Brown, Eileen Davidson, Carol Ellison, Marlene Stewart, all of Keene; Theresa Farrell, Lakefield; Doreen Little, Warsaw.

Silver Teaspoons.

Mrs. John Edmison, vice-president of the Junior Farmers Association of Peterborough county, presented silver teaspoons to each club member for satisfactory completion of the 1951-52 project of the cereal shelf. She also presented silver spoons to the club leaders on recognition of the work they had achieved.

Following the dinner the girls were guests at the meeting of the Junior Farmers Association held at the Normal school.

Clubs represented from the county were: Ballieboro, Belmont, Fraserville, Fairview, Keene, Havelock, Lakefield and Warsaw.