

Nov. - 1953

"PROJECT SUPPER CLUB" is the theme for leaders of 12 community Homeers' Clubs which are holding a two-day Wednesday and today, at Peterburgh Teachers' College. In the upper photo home economist of the Department of culture Miss Jean Noble demonstrates food-making to (left to right) Mrs. Lloyd

Jewison, of Bailieboro; Mrs. Roy Farrow, Lakefield; Mrs. John Knox, Norwood, and Mrs. Robert Melville, of Havelock. The three ladies making a supper dish in the lower photo are, left to right, Mrs. Clarence Mann, of Smith township, Mrs. Olive Churchill, Buckhorn, and Mrs. Archie McIntyre, of Keene.—(Examiner Staff Photos).

JAT. Nov 21/64

Bailieboro 4-H Party Planners Tea Hostesses

BAILIEBORO (ENS) — As a windup to the fall activities, members of the Bailieboro 4-H Petite Party Planners hosted a club tea Saturday afternoon in Bailieboro United Church hall to approximately 50 persons. Included were their mothers and members of the local women's Institute, club sponsors.

Guests were welcomed at the door by the club president and leader Margaret Sanderson and Mrs. Merton Thompson.

On display were the girls record books, hostess files as well as crest and pins. A large poster with the 4-H pledge decorated the wall.

Green and gold, the club colors were used to decorate the tea table. The table was centered with a bowl of gold 'mums flanked with silver candelabra holding green candles.

Those acting as waitresses were Mrs. Max Tyson, assistant club leader Dianne Babee, Brenda Smith, Wanda, Wendy and Marguerete Chalico, Margaret Sanderson, Mary Ellen Hogg, Gloria Whitfield, Virginia Anderson, Cathy Robinson, Ruth and Pat Larmer, Jean Breckenridge and Phyllis Gibson.

Members will be showing their books and files Nov. 28, Achievement Day, in St. Peter's Auditorium (Peterborough).