W. G. WATERMAN

Former Warden

Feb. 18, 1963.

Past Warden Of County Dies At 63

WATERMAN, Mr. Willard G.—At Civic Hospital, Peterborough, on Sunday, February 17, 1963, Willard G. Waterman of RR 5, Peterborough, beloved husband of Renette Taggart. Dear father of Mrs. Donald Spicer (Margaret) of Millbrook, Mrs. Clare Sandy (Catherine), Mrs. John Gardner (Mary Lou) of Peterborough and John Waterman of RR 5, Peterborough. Brother of Mrs. Janet Ehnes, South Monaghan, Mrs. Ray Finlay (Helen) of Fraserville, Miss Kathleen Waterman of Peterborough, John Waterman of Toronto and the late Ethel and Joseph Waterman. Also survived by eight grandchildren. The late Mr. Waterman is resting at the Comstock Funeral Home, 356 Rubidge St., from Tuesday evening where service will be held on Thursday, February 21 at 2 p.m. Rev. George Saunders officiating. Interment Fraserville Cemetery.

Willard G. Waterman, 63, warden of Peterborough County in 1954, died Sunday in a city hospital. He had been in failing health for five months.

He was reeve of North Monaghan Township from 1953-55, and deputy-reeve from 1928 to 1931. His father, Robert Waterman, was also reeve of the township about 50 years ago.

Secretary of Fraserville cemetery board at the time of his death and a former director of Peterborough Co-operative, he had lived at the family homestead in North Monaghan all his life.

He was active in all phases of Fraserville United Church activities and was a member of Fraserville Loyal Orange Lodge 46.

His mother was the former Catherine Dawson.

Lloyd Whittington, present reeve, was on the township council when it was headed by Mr. Waterman. Said Mr. Whittington today:

EFFICIENT REEVE

"He was a very efficient reeve. I can't think of a man who could have filled the position better. He was in office during the building boom in the township. He was the sort that could work out every difficulty that came up. He was a very good reeve to work under."

Bruce Johnston, former township clerk, said: "His father was reeve in my early days as a clerk. Willard was on the suburban roads commission. He was young and efficient. He came from a well-established and well-respected family. I certainly have always held that family in the greatest respect."

The body will be at Comstock funeral home from Tuesday night. Funeral will be Thursday at 2 p.m., the Rev. George Saunders of Fraserville United Church officiating. Burial will be in Fraserville cemetery.

Mr. Waterman is survived by his wife, the former Renette Taggart; daughters Mrs. Donald Spicer (Margaret) of Millbrook, Mrs. Clare Sandy (Catherine), Mrs. John Gardner (Mary Lou) of Peterborough, son John of RR 5, Peterborough; sisters Mrs. Janet Ehnes of South Monaghan, Mrs. Ray Finlay (Helen) of Fraserville, Miss Kathleen Waterman of Peterborough; brother John of Toronto; eight grandchildren.

A brother and sister, Ethel and Joseph, predeceased him.
