MR. AND MRS. DAVID R. DICKIE

Lake Placid Honeymoon Follows Bensfort Rites

Miss Marlene Elizabeth Cruse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Cruse of South Monaghan, on Saturday became the bride of David R. Dickie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dickie of Toronto.

The couple will live in Toronto, at 63 Lee Ave., after their honeymoon in the Adirondacks, at Lake Placid, N.Y.

The wedding was in Bensfort United Church, with the Rev. George Saunders officiating and the music by Mrs. Alan Dawson.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was wearing a gown of Swiss embroidered organza with bouffant ballerina length skirt and long sleeves. She carried a cascade bouquet of feathered white carnations and trailing ivy.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Kenneth Thompson of Peterborough, who was wearing a short gown of mauve taffeta and net with organza overskirt and mauve accessories. She carried a hand bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Miss Valerie Faye Cruse was her sister's flower girl. She was in a dress of pale blue organza over taffeta with white accessories, and also carried a hand bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

The groom was attended by his brother, Douglas Dickie of Toronto, and the ushers were Walter Anthony and William Shields, also of Toronto.

Guests came from Toronto, Hamilton, Midland, Orillia, Port Credit, Richmond Hill, Campbellford and Peterborough.

They were received in the church parlor by Mrs. Cruse who wore a beige cotton knitted two piece dress with beige accessories and corsage of Talisman roses. Also receiving was the groom's mother, who was in a sand color chiffon over print sheath with matching bolero. Her corsage was of Carl Amblin sweetheart roses.

When going away the bride wore a white cotton broad dress with beige accessories and an eggshell silk shantung top coat.
