

BAILIEBORO NEWS !

Mr. Clayton will be the speaker for the World Day of Prayer Service, to be observed this year in Bailieboro United Church, on March 7, at 2:00 P.M. The men are invited to join in this service.

The Bailieboro U. C. W. will meet in the Church hall on Wednesday, March 5. All ladies are cordially invited to attend. Will members please note that the Roll Call is to be answered with an item for the bazaar. Mrs. H. Jewison is in charge of the worship program.

Parents are reminded that Sunday School for all classes up to and including the Junior Class is being held at 10:20 A.M., with the children leaving the Church Service at that time. When the time of the Church Service changes on the first Sunday in March to 11:30 A.M. Sunday School will be held at 11:50 A.M.

The Moonbeams will meet again on March 7 to enjoy an evening of crafts and devotions. The average attendance at the present time is 20. If there are any girls of public school age who are not already members of this group, you are invited to come out and meet with us.

F.S. Mother is welcome too!

Miss Lottie Lucy has returned home following an operation at St. Joseph's Hospital.
