

BOB BURTON was the first to ring the newly installed 'original' bell from the 1887 Bent River school. Bob said that as a boy he was never allowed to ring the bell because it was used as an emergency signal to indicate a potential drowning.

