

Blackstock Ag Society meets

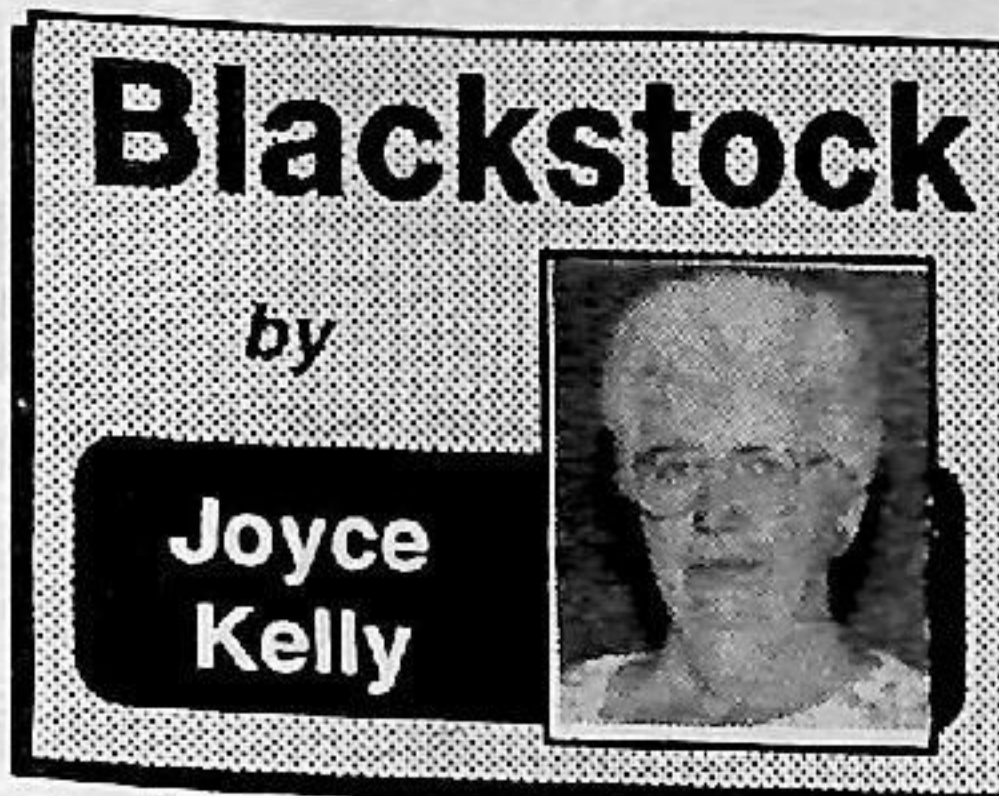

On Saturday afternoon a beautiful wedding took place in the Blackstock United Church when Lawrence Van Camp and Janet Stevenson were married. The service was conducted by Rev. David Shearman assisted by the groom's aunt, Rev. Doreen Van Camp. The reception and dance took place in the Blackstock Recreation Centre. Lawrence and Jan have gone on a week's Caribbean cruise. Best wishes are extended to the young couple at this happy occasion.

Congratulations to Peter Barber and Janice Elborn of Oshawa who were engaged over the holidays.

Congratulations and best wishes are extended to Audrey Jamieson and Gordon Metcalfe who were married last week. They are living at Audrey's home on Purple Hill.

Lorrie Swain, who was involved in a serious car accident on Friday morning south of Blackstock is progressing favorably in Sunnybrook Hospital in Toronto. The community extends wishes for continued and as speedy a recovery as possible.

Forty members of the families of Grant and Ruth Ferguson of Peterborough, George Dunbar of Scarborough, Sandra and Noel Morton of Oshawa, Thelma and Lloyd Wright, Bill and Jean Ferguson all of Blackstock gathered at Nestleton Hall on Sunday for their annual Christmas get-together. The event began with a delicious dinner, games, distribution of children's gifts and much visiting.

The annual meeting for the Blackstock Agriculture Society will be held in the form of a pot luck dinner at the Recreation Centre on Thursday, Jan. 19 beginning at 7 p.m. Speaker will be local resident Bruce Rogers who is a newscaster at C.F.R.B. Bill Lishman will also be in attendance to discuss his Geese Project. Chairmen are asked to have their reports written and ready for presentation. The public is welcome to bring your "pot" and join the group.

A preliminary notice is given for Feb. 19 when Tom Easthope, Grief Councillor will speak at the Blackstock United Church at 7:30 p.m. Mark your calendar if you are interested.

There were nine tables at the weekly euchre party with the following winners: Don Stanfield, Don Linton, Jim Redman, Merv Storrie, Muriel Butson, Charlie Campbell, Grant Bright. Draws were won by Gord Finney, Evelyn Trapp, Muriel Butson, Gary Notboom and Grant Bright.

Harold and Eileen McLaughlin were New Year's Day dinner guests of her cousins Jean and Lloyd Slemmon and Fred of Hayden along with several other family members.

The Van Camp clan gathered at the home of Valerie and Ron Linton of Raglan to hold their New Year's Day dinner and supper. In addition to the families of Merrill, Keith and Aileen Van Camp, Mrs. Susan Saywell, Ted and Marg Kemp, Jeff and David attended this happy family gathering.

Kathy Morris, Luke and Jackie of Ottawa spent the holiday week with her parents Harold and Lois Luke. While in the area they visited many relatives and friends.

Blackstock Women's Institute by Lois Luke P.R.O.

On Jan. 4 at 1 p.m. eight members of the Blackstock Women's Institute gathered at the Blackstock United Church for their first meeting in 1995. After a delicious lunch, President Pat Sleep welcomed everyone and opened the meeting with the Mary Stewart Collect and the Ode. Correspondence included several thank you notes. Plans were made for the Lions Club dinner on Jan. 18.

Dora Martyn is making plans to hold Exercise Classes open to the public. More details later.

Mrs. R. McLaughlin was the convenor in charge. The Roll Call: How I waste water was well answered. The motto was: When the well runs dry, you appreciate the value of water. A video "Rivers to the Sea" was shown.

The meeting closed with the singing of O'Canada.

Roy and Linda Bradburn enjoyed a winter break at the Dominican Republic.

The many university and college students who were home for the holidays have returned to their studies as have the public and high school students.

soon

- Tuesday, January 10, 1995

with John and Jean Medland were Sunday dinner guests of Barb and Tony Mata, Tonya, Tammy and Tena of the Brooklin area.