A HAPPY 50TH COUPLE: Tony and Margaret Duivesteyn were surrounded by family and friends last weekend as the Scugog couple celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. Check today's Turning Points for more happy local celebrations.

70 years together!

2009

YOUNG AT HEART: Vera and Vern Asselstine welcomed family, friends and dignitaries to a celebration of their 70 years of marriage last weekend at the Port Perry Legion. Mr. and Mrs. Asselstine were wed in 1939. Mr. Asselstine subsequently served in the Canadian army through World War Two and the pair settled in the Blackstock area until moving to Port Perry only recently.

45 years ... and still smiling!

AFTER ALL THESE YEARS: Joyce and Gerald Kelly were joined by family and friends recently in Blackstock as they celebrated 45 years of marriage. On hand were the couple's daughters and their families including one granddaughter looking lovely in the very same 'going away' dress once worn by Joyce. The couple are long-time Blackstock residents with a record of community service on almost every committee and board going and Joyce, the current Durham District School Trustee, served multiple previous terms and one term at Scugog Township Council. Joyce is also read weekly on the Shorelines pages of The Scugog Standard.
