

In by gone days we would have 30-40 ladies and children. How I wish we could do that to-day, but so many of our young mothers are working. When I look back over our membership pages, it brings tears to my eyes that so many lovely ladies have passed on. We must carry on as best we can, remembering all the happy times we had together.

Thank you
May Shortidge