Kingsmill and Kimberlea Puffer.

■■■
The School Level Special Education Identification meeting originally scheduled for March has been reset for Thursday, April 23.

Parents involved will receive new letters from the school board indicating the times of their appointments.

■■■
The School Parents Council meets twice in April. Once already April 2 and again 7:15 p.m., April 23.

Upcoming agenda items include reports from the Fundraising and Facilities committees and, review of the school's Homework Policy.

A reminder that Friday, April 24, is no longer a Professional Activity Day. Regular classes will be held on that date.

For Junior and Senior Kindergarten students, it is a Star day. Four other students and staff, it is an extra Day 1.

Chocolate sale raises $6,000

SOUTH CRAMAHE - The chocolate sales fund raiser was a great success reports Heather Harnden-Russell, chair of the Parent Council at South Cramahe Public School. Close to $5,000 was raised.

Thanks to all South Cramahe parents, students and staff for support.

A special thank you to Shannon Roberts, Carolyn Campbell, Amy Patton, Leanne Ferguson, Cathy Watt and Mr. Brown for their distribution and collection efforts.

The school's top salespeople were Bailey Campbell, Grade 3/4; and Stephen Delong, Grade 1/2. They won a $50 gift certificate from Northumberland Mall.

Top class sales went to Mrs. R. Clarke's Grade 1/2. They receive a pizza/pop party. Second place winners Mrs. B. Chatterson's Grade 4/5 class win a five-pound chocolate bar.

■■■
The next Parent Council meeting will be held April 15, 7 p.m. with guest speaker Shirley Mitchell on "Building Self-esteem in Your Kids and Yourself".

To ensure everyone gets a seat for the Spring Concert at South Cramahe Public School, the concert has been scheduled for two evenings.

Because the school gym is limited in size, the school is requesting family groups limit their size so everyone fits in. On Wednesday, April 29, family of JK, Grades 1, 2/3, 4/5 and 7/8 are scheduled to attend.

On Thursday evening, April 30, family of SK, Grade 1.2, 3/4 and 6/7 are invited.

Show time is at 7 p.m. Twitchers take note: the show will last 45-60 minutes.
