

COLBORNE ART GALLERY AUG 6/98

While the oil painting is entitled "The Jazz Pianist", artist Ruth Coleman Harding told us the subject is also her son. One of 17 members of the Colborne Society of Artists, an exhibit of her portraits opened at the Colborne Art Gallery last Saturday. There was a steady and busy stream of visitors for the opening reception 2-4 p.m. The co-op deliberately opted to host an exhibit of portraits for the month of August, augmenting the work of other co-op members. Ms. Coleman Harding, who paints in oil for the sense of texture, also paints landscapes. A resident of the area for the past six years, the McGill University graduate of fine arts has been painting since childhood. Today, from her studio "in the cow pasture" near Baltimore, she is delighted with the area's ambiance and variety. The show runs at the Colborne gallery in the Old Registry Office, King Street East, until the end of August.

Photo by Mandy Martin

CHARDULE AUG 6/98

Ernie Morrison of Castleton is an innovative guy. He's constructed a unique protection system for one of the bird feeders on the beautiful property he and wife Vi delight in landscaping and sharing with family and friends. The round metal cover is a discarded shield that used to cover a parking lot street light at a greater Toronto hospital. The metal base is from a former baby incubator. The Morrisons used to use the intact incubator for baby goslings. "Nothing goes to waste," Mr. Morrison laughs.

Photo by Mandy Martin

In loving memory of my dear son
Peter Hanna
who passed away on July 29th, 1997
A tear trickles down my cheek
Each time my thoughts return to you.
A tear that can't be wiped away,
For my heart is weeping, too.
I cannot begin to say good-bye
Or even think of letting go.
I am holding on with all my heart,
God knows I miss you so.
A year has gone by and still I cry
As though you had just gone away.
Yet my breaking hearts seems to believe
You are here with me today.
Shall I believe what I cannot touch?
Shall I believe what I cannot see?
Shall I believe what lives in my heart?
Yes, I believe an Angel is watching over me.
My love forever Mom.

JULY 30/98

In loving memory of our dear nephew
Peter Hanna
Those whom we love
go out of sight
But never out of mind
They are cherished in the hearts
Of those they leave behind.
*Uncle Bill, Aunt Doris
and cousins, Cobourg*
Uncle Bob, Aunt Iris and cousins, Windsor

RICHARDSON, ANNIE RENA
(nee McNAIR)
Died peacefully at 1:45pm.
Monday, June 22, 1998 in Sidbrook Private Hospital,
Cobourg, Ontario. Rena
Richardson was in her 102nd year.
She had been a patient at Sidbrook for five years. Rena was predeceased by her husband Nel-les H. Richardson (January 10, 1993) and by her six brothers.
Rena is survived by sister-in-law
Hazel Richardson McCourt and by several nieces and nephews.
Rena was born in Black Cape, Quebec July 24, 1896 and was the only daughter of Robert and Jane (nee Colville) McNair. Prior to her retirement in 1956 Rena had enjoyed a long teaching career
having graduated from Macdonald College School for Teachers, Ste.
Anne de Bellevue, Quebec in 1916. She taught in schools of the Gaspé, Shawville, Danville,
Granby, Dolbeau and Montreal,
Quebec with most of her years teaching first grade. Rena had resided on Cedar Street in Colborne since 1972 where she was a member of Colborne United Church and United Church Women. Rena played bridge regularly until she was into her nineties and she enjoyed entertaining friends and relatives in her home. A memorial service will be held at the Colborne United Church at 2:30pm., Saturday, August 8, 1998. Interment to follow at Salem
United Church Cemetery. Arrangements by the MacCoubrey
Funeral Home, 11 King St. W., Colborne, Ontario.

• OBITUARIES

Toronto. Sadly missed by granddaughters Quinn and Samantha both of Toronto. A private family graveside service was held on Wednesday, July 29, 1998 at 3:30 o'clock. Interment Mount Hope Cemetery, Brighton.

CLARA ELIZABETH ALLEN

Elizabeth Allen (nee Duncan) was born on the family farm in Morganston, Ontario, January 11, 1914. She resided there, attending Pine Woods public school and Morganston United Church until she passed the "entrance" exams at age twelve, whereupon she and her mother and sister moved to the village of Warkworth for her to attend high school. Upon joining St. Paul's United church, she became very actively involved with Sunday School, singing in the church choir, and participating in the then very active Young People's Society. While acting in the YPS annual drama presentation she met her husband to be, W. Grant Allen. They were married January 23, 1932, and resided in Warkworth throughout their marriage of over sixty-six years. Ill health compelled them to move to the Community Nursing Home just over two years ago, and it was there that she passed away suddenly on Saturday, July 11, 1998.

• OBITUARIES

MR. JOHANNES 'JOHN' DEVRIES

At the Trenton Memorial Hospital on Sunday, July 19, 1998 aged 66 years. John Devries, of RR#7 Brighton loving husband of Sylvia (Zandstra). Dear father of Annette (Mrs. Ray Bruneau), Brighton; Art Devries and his wife Jackie, Brighton; Rick Devries, Brighton; Cynthia (Mrs. Duncan White), Cambridge; Geraldine Devries, Brighton; and Yvonne (Mrs. Dan Dulmage), Colborne. Dear brother of Arnold, Picton; Allen, Trenton; Sid, Portland; Ruth Hoekstra, Picton; and Jane Devries, Belleville. Sadly missed by grandchildren Jonathan, Stephen, Bryan, Shawn, Tamara, Dean, Karyle and Ian. John had farmed most of his life and was also a plasterer in the construction industry. The family received friends at the Walas Funeral Home, 130 Main Street, Brighton on Tuesday. Service was held in the Fellowship Christian Reformed Church, Brighton on Wednesday, July 22nd at 1 o'clock. Interment Carrying Place Cemetery, Annex.

BRIGHTON INDEPENDENT AUG 4/98

Although unstinting in her time and talents for church and community, she readily admitted her greatest pleasure and accomplishment was her family: she will be sadly missed by husband, Grant; sons Garth, Bryce and daughter-in-law, Janice; grandchildren, Johanna, Hillary, and Nathan; sister, Mabel Wellard; and niece, Jane Wellard.