Fun in the park for Jean's "farewell"

A party in the park - To honour her 23 years as a Colborne booster and business owner, the Colborne merchants and community hosted a community barbecue in Victoria Park Sunday. Free hot dogs, pop, and cake were served up. Jean was presented with a plaque from the village, presented by Reeve

George Boycott, far right. On behalf of the merchants and other community members, Dunc McGlennon, far left, presented a diamond-encrusted, engraved gold necklace.
