

COMMUNITY NEWS

Sunnyside celebrates 12 years in Colborne

ABOVE CENTRE: Family and friends gathered to celebrate Sunnyside Meats 12th anniversary in business. Left is Ingrid Zulauf of Newcastle, whose husband Klaus helped out as an honorary barbecue for the complimentary sausage on a bun served to customers and friends.

LEFT: Skylar Barth enjoys a honey and garlic sausage on a bun at his family's 12th anniversary celebration of Sunnyside Market in Colborne last Saturday.

ABOVE RIGHT: The true measure of a successful cake, as far as Mitzi and Skylar Barth are concerned, is the amount of sprinkles on the top. The children of Sunnyside Market proprietors Esther and David Barth decorated a cake to accompany the "adult" cake at the Sunnyside Market 12th anniversary complimentary barbecue in Colborne last Saturday. When the "adult" cake was cut, Esther was astounded at the thickness of the icing. "It has to have lots of icing," David avowed.

Photos by Mandy Martin

BOTTOM RIGHT: Confirmed customers Mabel Dainard, left, and daughter Gladys Donnelly, right, swear the homemade honey and garlic sausage made at Sunnyside Market.