

ABOVE: Moira Chapman with Kelsey, 4, and Kendall, 6, serving up 25-cent candy floss. Everything was a deal at the the Castleton Corn Roast and Street Dance - free admission, hot dogs, corn, coffee, drinks for a quarter.

Getting fingerprinted is a family affair! Left, Mom Kathlee Caron of Nepean attempts to interest son Jesse Caron, 2, in registering his fingerprints at the Cramahé Colborne Community Policing Volunteers stand at Castleton last Saturday. Grandmother Edna Gauvin helps out, while policing volunteer Karen Smith, right, assists.

Photos by Mandy Martin

The kid's Fish Pond was a big hit at last Saturday's annual Cramahé Street Fair at Castleton. The prize was not important to Carly Chapman, 1.5 years old; she wanted to keep the "fish".