

NEWS

It's Christmas time!

Children and parents were treated to horse-drawn hayrides around the village of Castleton, just one of many activities organized for the annual Cramahe Recreation Committee's annual Children's Christmas party last Sunday afternoon. At left, you'd think Amelie Albert, one year old on December 16, would be intimidated by the crowds of kids and adults attending the Cramahe Recreation Committee Children's Christmas party at Castleton Municipal Building last Sunday afternoon. Not so. Armed with a cookie, she tested her three-week-old walking legs, wading in to the fun along with everyone else.

PHOTOS BY MANDY MARTIN

8—THE COLBORNE CHRONICLE—Thursday, December 17, 1998

It's serious business, this Christmas season decorating. Despite crowds of children and adults at the Castleton Municipal Building last Sunday, Brandon Kober applied his undivided attention to crafting a red and green paper chain to decorate his home.

COLBORNE CHRONICLE
DEC. 17/98

BARLOW- The family of the late Edgar Barlow of Colborne would like to thank family, friends and neighbours for their kindness and comforting words, phone calls, cards, food, floral arrangements and charitable donations. Special thanks to Dr. Essak, Chapman, MacDonald, I.C.U. and first floor nursing staff N.H.C.C. Cobourg, Colborne Ambulance, Ric Hoffman, MacCoubrey Funeral Home, Rev. Victor Parsons for his kindness and prayers and a memorable service. Colborne Legion Br. 187 for their special service and comradeship, Ladies Aux. for the lovely lunch. He will be sadly missed by his wife, children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and all who knew him.