

LOCAL

PHOTO BY LINDA QUINN

Kokimo Candles presented a $1,000 cheque to Castleton Sports Club at the company's Christmas dinner and dance November 28. Happily doing the honours at the Castleton Municipal Building are, left to right: Ken and Roseanne Quinn, Doreen Coombes, Dale Strickland, Nancy Jones, Beverley Simpson, Linda Marshman of the Sports Club, Trish Bonner of the Sports Club and Adrian Quinn.

Company shows spirit of Christmas

The candle of community spirit glows brightly at

Kokimo Candles of Cramahe Township.

"At our Christmas party this year, Ken and Adrian (Quinn) decided that instead of a party favour for each employee, the company would donate to a community cause to show appreciation for the community," Beverley Simpson explained.

"The company hosted everyone at the dinner and dance, and then a cheque for $1,000 was presented to the Castleton Sports Club."

The 37 employees of Kokimo Candles, partners, owners and sports club reps gathered for an 8 p.m. presentation at the Castleton Municipal Hall where the Kokimo Christmas dinner dance was held November 21.

— MANDY MARTIN

COLBORNE CHRONICLE
NOV 26/98

Cuddly crafts

PHOTO BY MANDY MARTIN

Teddy bears are personalities, too, as far as Kathlyn Froelich is concerned. Her handmade teddies come in all sizes, colours — and garb. She and her mom, quilter Gladys Briggs of Purdy Road, shared exhibit space for last weekend's first Colborne-Cramahe Home Craft tour.

