

COMMUNITY

Argyle Packard served with RCAF

Argyle Arthur Packard passed away peacefully in the early hours of November 3, 1999, following a battle with cancer.

Argyle was born near Colborne on December 31, 1920. He left the family farm at the outbreak of WWII to enlist in the RCAF, serving with Great Britain and Canada. It was while serving at Dartmouth, Nova Scotia, that he met Esther, who was also serving. They were married on April 17, 1945, in Saskatoon.

After a brief return to farming, Argyle re-enlisted serving a total of 27 years before retiring in 1967. Peacetime postings included five Canadian provinces and France.

OBITUARY

After the family made their home in Saskatoon, Argyle (Gyle) began an 18-year career with the Saskatoon School Board, retiring for good in 1985.

Argyle loved music, travel, flying and, in later years, computers. Family times were very special to Him. Beneath his crusty exterior was a tender heart that loved his family dearly.

Argyle is survived by his loving wife Esther; daughters Ellen (Jerry) Nichvalod-off, Dianne (Ron) Banman, Nancy (Ken) Robertson; and sons Richard Packard and Roy (Barb) Packard. He is also survived by two sisters Shirley (Cec) Oliver and Eunice Blyth; and by 14 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

The funeral service was held Saturday, November 6, 2 p.m., at St. George's Anglican Church i Saskatoon. The service was conducted by the Reverend Henry Comerford.

Interment took place at Hillcrest memorial Gardens. A memorial tea followed at the church.

Numerous break-ins, thefts over the weekend

A business premises located on Front Street, Campbellford, was broken into January 21. Several bottles of liquor were stolen.

On January 22, a garden shed was forcibly entered at a residence on McDonald Road, Haldimand Township. It appears the person(s) involved tool an ATV when scared off by the homeowner.

A home of the 10th Concession of Hope Township was forcibly entered January 22. Thieves made off with a computer and television.

A home on Ganaraska Road, Hope Township, was forcibly entered January 22. A quantity of jewelry was stolen.

On the afternoon of January 20, approximately 1:30 p.m., a vehicle was stopped in the village of Colborne relating to a Highway Traffic Act infraction. Upon speaking to the vehicle driver, it was discovered he was prohibited from driving a motor vehicle. Robert Publicover, 42, Cobourg, is to appear in Cobourg Provincial Court. The vehicle operated by Mr. Publicover was seized under the Vehicle Impoundment Program and towed from the village.

Overnight January 20, a break, enter and theft occurred at a restaurant in Campbellford. Entry was gained by forcing a rear window to the premises. Two 40-ounce bottles of rye whiskey, two 40-ounce bottles of vodka, one 40-ounce bottle of rum, as well as eight bottles of wine were stolen. One bottle of wine was recovered dropped outside the restaurant.

Northumberland OPP are investigating.

Two female youth face threatening charges following verbal threats to a third female. The two, aged 15 and 14 years, are to appear in Cobourg Youth Court February 17. The threats were reported to police January 19.

POLICE REPORT

On January 20, a Cramahe Township resident reported his brown and white pony "Pat" had gone missing from the Cramahe Township property.

A Percy Township resident reported January 19 her Welsh Pinto pony "Pete" had gone missing from the Percy Township property. The pony is reddish brown and white in colour and is very friendly.

At approximately 11:30 a.m. January 19, a gym bag was stolen from a vehicle in Campbellford while the owner was shopping. The man returned to discover his gym bag had been taken in the 10 minutes he had been shopping. The bag contained gym clothes and shoes, approximate value $50. Police are investigating.

At 3:36 p.m. January 18, an OPP Central Traffic Management Unit officer operating a laser speed detecting device on the east-bound lanes of Highway 401 observed a 1995 Volvo sleeper cab tractor trailer travelling at 199 km/h in a 100 km/h zone. The vehicle driver was stopped and asked to produce his vehicle daily log, which he produced incomplete.

Charged with speeding, failing to maintain a log book as well as failure to surrender inspection report contrary to the Highway Traffic Act is Leo-Paul Monette, 37, Orleans. Fines for the infractions total $867.50.

PCY Carriers Incorporated, owners of the vehicle, face charges of permitting person to drive a commercial vehicle not in accordance with the Highway Traffic Act as well as failure to maintain documents or cause them to be maintained contrary to the Highway Traffic Act. These infractions each carry a fine totalling $375..

A Cramahe Township resident returned home following a three-day trip to discover his home had been broken into. Numerous firearms as well as a variety of tools, jewelry, and Luxman stereo equipment were stolen. Stolen long guns include a Ruger Model 7 mm Magnum bolt action rifle, a Sava 3000 lever action rifle a 22-calibre ITHI Magnum lever action rifle, a 12-gauge Remi model 1100 semi-automatic rifle, a Winchester 30-30 lever action rifle, as well as a 22-calibre semi-automatic rifle. Northumberland OPP are investigating.

At approximately 10:50 a.m., January 18, two men attending court appearances in Brighton Provincial Court made death threats to a third male in attendance in the presence of a police officer. Charged with threatening death contrary to the Criminal Code are John Lemon, 19, Seymour Township, and Robert Prevost, 19, Seymour Township. The two men were released on undertaking to appear in Brighton Provincial Court February 9. Mr. Lemon faces the additional charge of Breach of Probation stemming from the incident.