

COUNTY

Gone Fishin': Cramahe Township Rec Committee and Library Board member and volunteer Larry Bird, left, watches as young Claudia is lifted to the edge of the kid's fish pond by friend Alesha Feyen at Castleton last Saturday. It was all part of the annual "Castleton Stomp" kids events, street dance and corn roast organized by Cramahe Township Recreation committee.

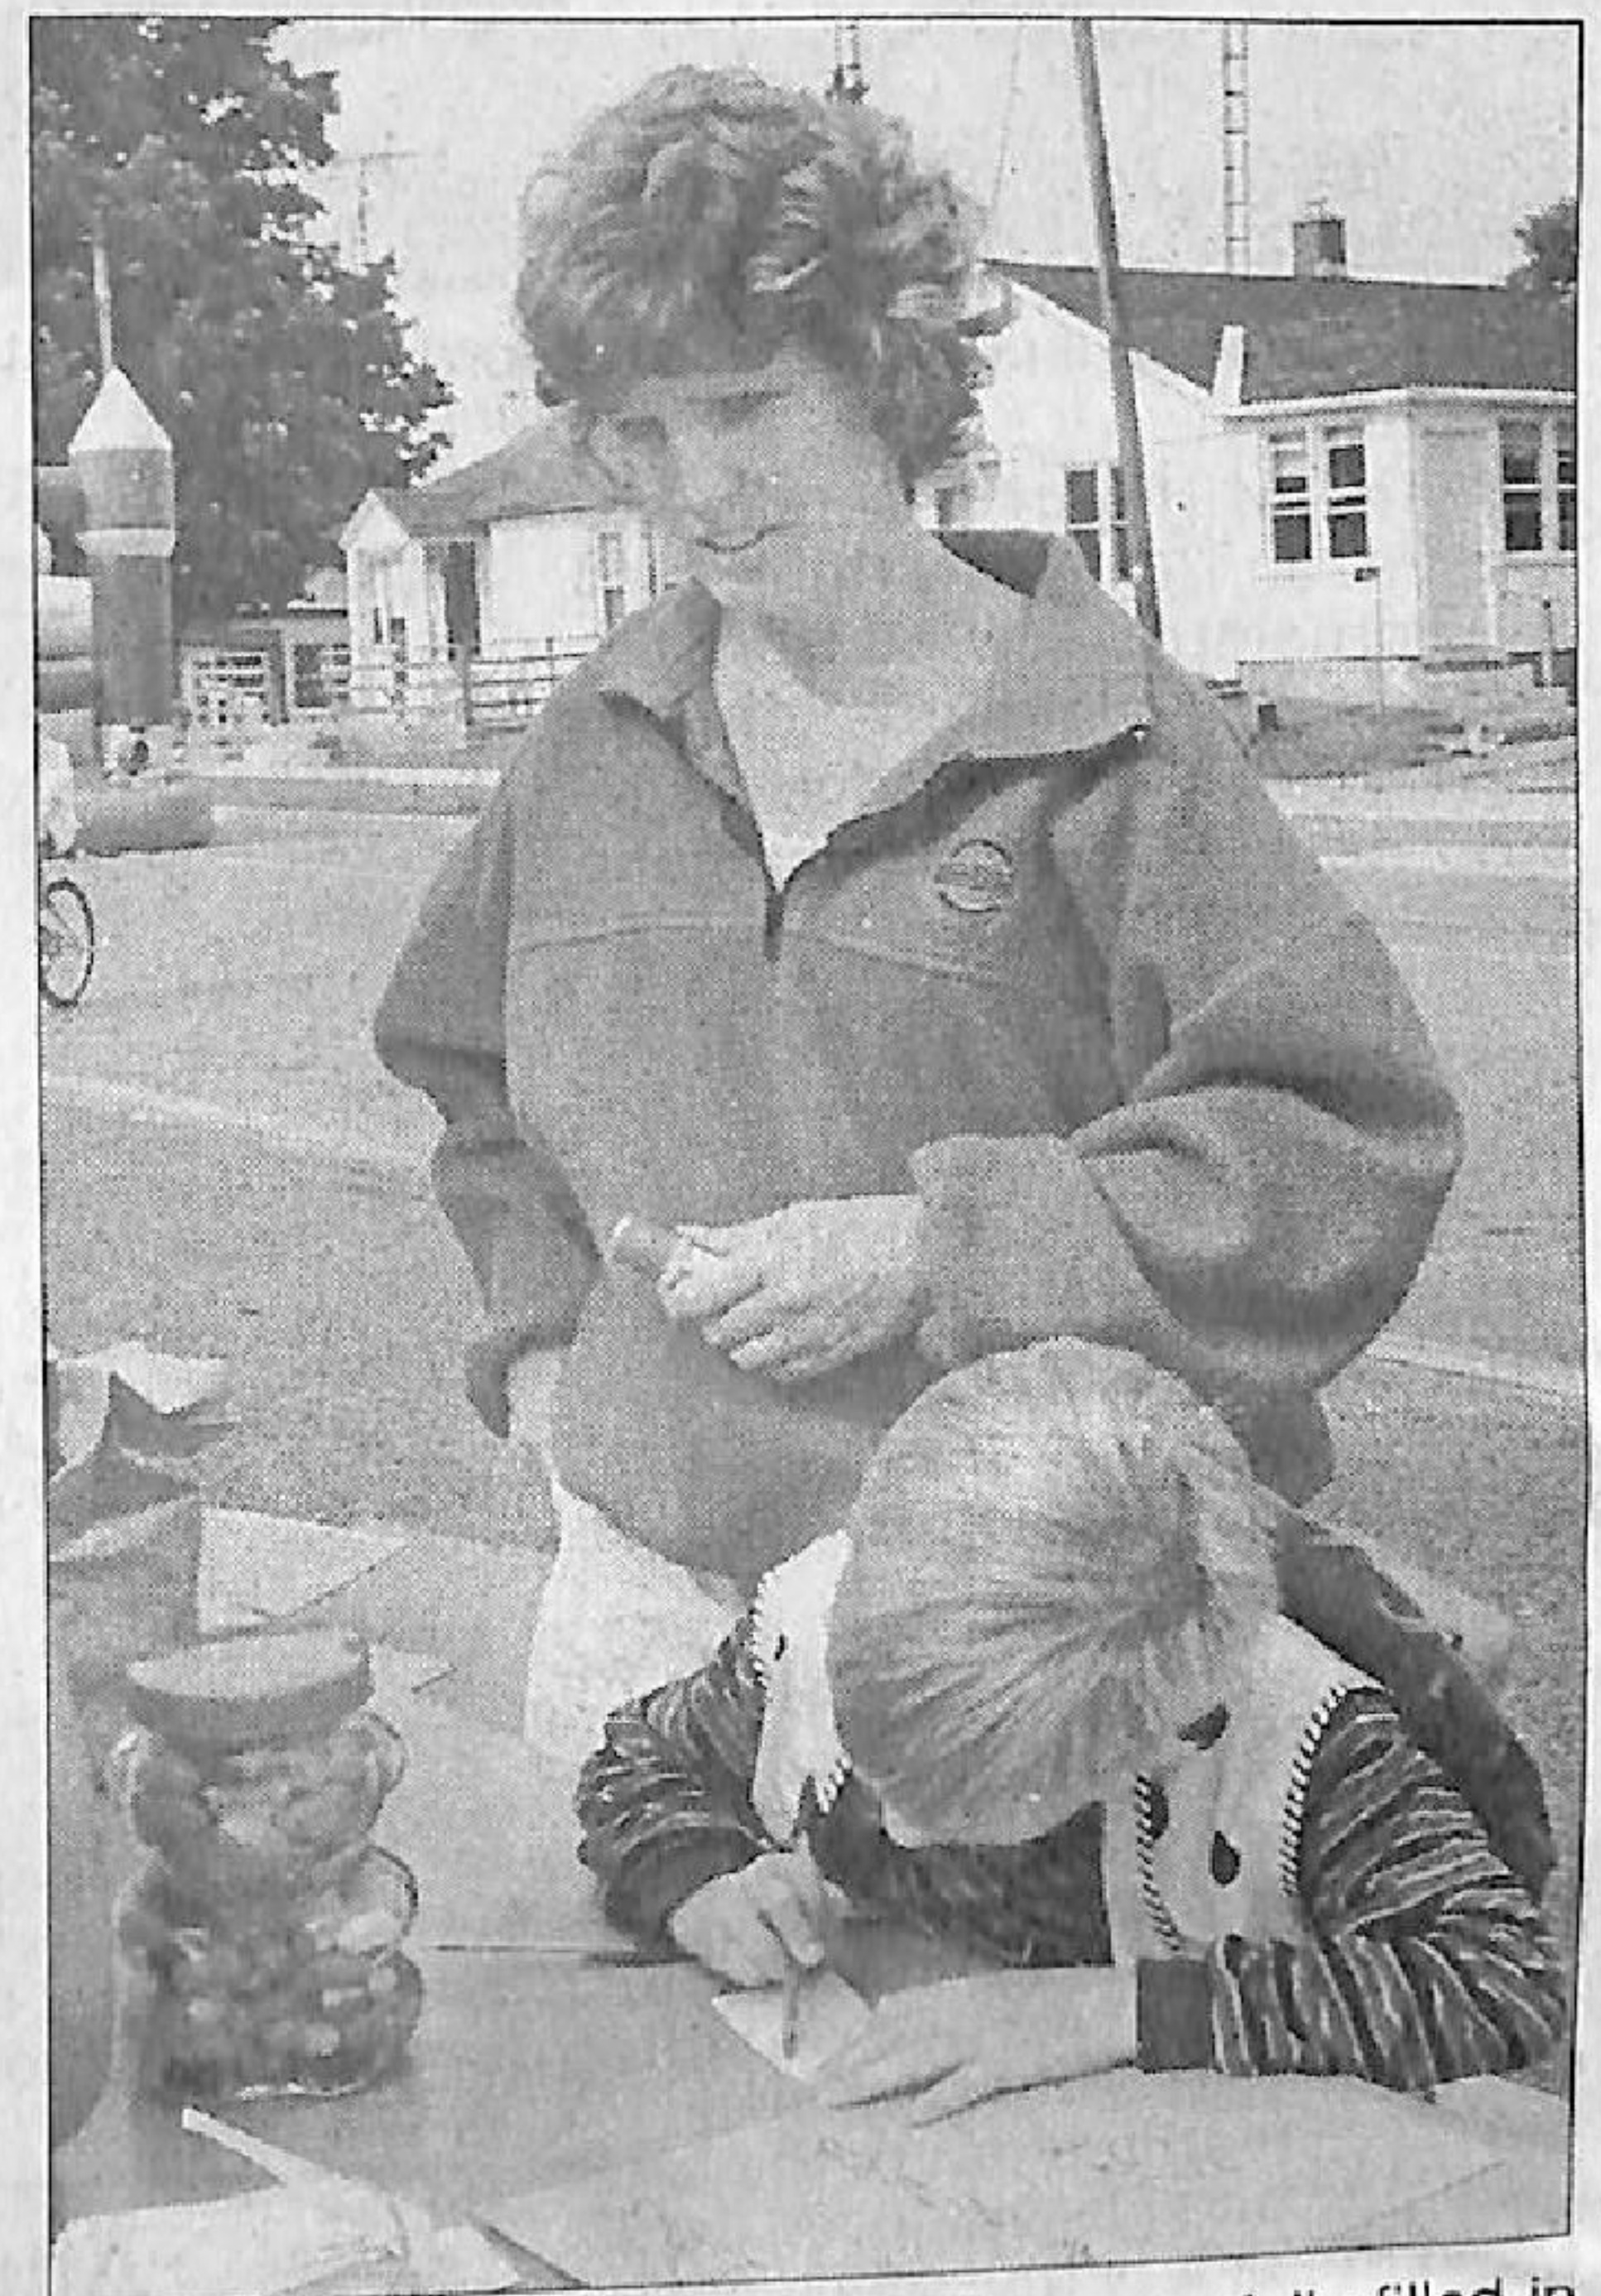

Fresh - very fresh - corn on the cob was prepared for the annual Cramahe Township Recreation Committee Corn Roast at Castleton last Saturday by Doug Wilson took time to pose for a photo.

Kids enjoy the Castleton Stomp

Kids enjoy the Bouncing Castle ride.

PHOTOS BY MANDY MARTIN

How Many Jelly Beans? John Rolfe carefully filled in his entry form while mom Brenda looked on at the annual Cramahe Township Recreation kids events held 12 noon through 4 p.m. last Saturday afternoon at Castleton. The deejay and street dancing got underway at 6 p.m.