

SANTA CLAUS PARADE WINNERS

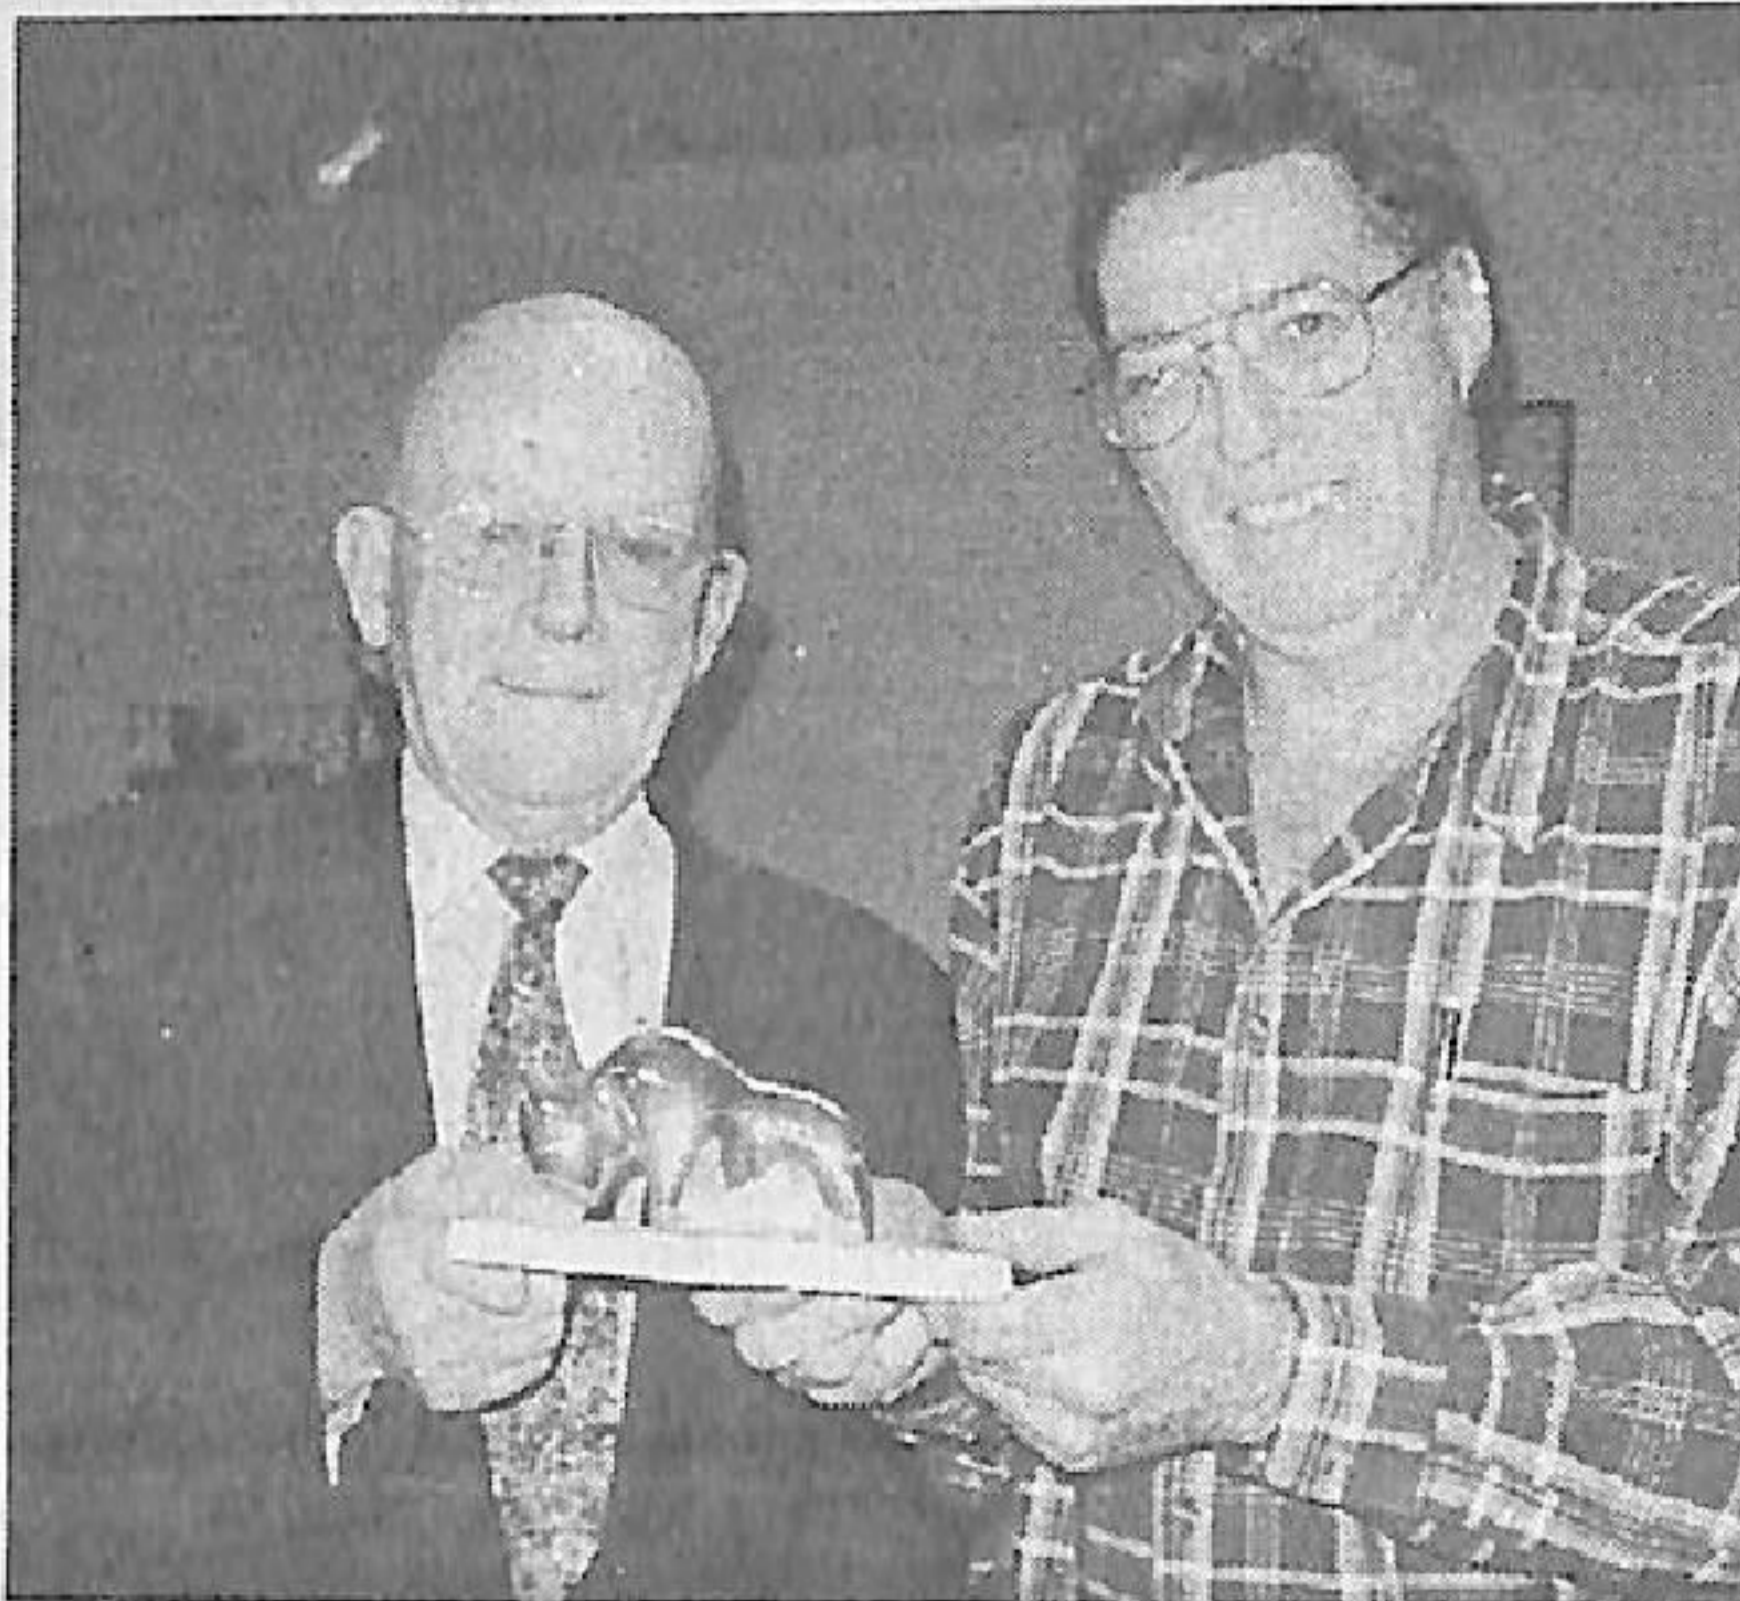

WALK AWAY WINNERS: The First Castleton Girl Guides won the trophy for Best Walkers entered in the annual Colborne Santa Claus parade. In front are Caitlyn Wilson and Sarah Puffer, right. Standing, left to right: Parade Committee co-chair Ruth Kripp, Amanda Hoffman, Debbie Puffer, Pharen Wilson, and parade co-chair Rose Nelson. Parade judges were Warren Brown, Nancy and Tim Post.

INDUSTRIAL PARADE WINNER: Rob Sanderson of Trussworthy, right, accepts the Trophy for Best Industrial entry in the annual Colborne Santa Claus parade from RCL Branch 187 President Ira Wile, left.

PROUD PARADE WINNER: Ferron Waite, centre, accepted the Hoselton trophy on behalf of Eden Sunday School for best church/school Santa Claus parade entry at the January 1 New Year's Day levee held at the Colborne Legion. Left, Ruth Kripp, co-chair of the parade committee presents the award while Ferron receives assistance from the Rev. David Timson of Eden United Church.

SERVICE CLUB WINNER: Colborne Rotary Club won the trophy for best service club entry in the annual Colborne Santa Claus Parade. Left, Jim Mills of Rotary, accepts the award presented by Bob Rusk of the Colborne Castleton Optimists.

BEST OVERALL SANTA PARADE ENTRY: The Ken Palmer Hoselton trophy for best overall entry in the annual Colborne Santa Claus parade went to the Northumberland Humane Society. Heather Palmer, right, presented the award to Adrian Williams of the Society Board of Directors.

Photos
by
Mandy
Martin