

Another year of awards for Alicia - Castleton's Alicia Crawford took home three prizes at graduation. She was winner of the Thompson & Thompson History Award for highest marks in Modern Western Civilization, the Wooler Women's Institute Award for her contributions in Family Studies, and a Loyalist College scholarship recognizing her high average and leadership activities.

Recognized for her varied talents, Bianka VanEgmond was granted three prizes at graduation. She took the Northumberland Players Youth Award for her extensive efforts in drama, the Coaches Award for her outstanding results in track, and the Carrying Place United Church Women's Group Award for her contributions to the school community.

AN ARMFUL OF ACCOLADES: Julie Impey collected the Brighton Lions Award, the Colborne Rotary Club Bursary, the Millennium Scholarship, and the Principal's Award for Student Leadership.

With her high average Ashley Jakobi won one of three Masonic United Lodge No. 29 scholarships.

CHRONICLE
SEPT 4/03

ENSS Graduation 2002-2003

Photos by Bob Owen (2)

Now safely settled at Lakehead University in Thunder Bay, Jessie Eddy took with her two awards. She was the winner of the R. J. Bird prize for Environmental