Hail, hail the gang's all here. A crowd of walkers make the big turn for the walk back to Victoria Square.

The 2003 edition of the Colborne Terry Fox Run was declared a big success by organizer Janice McKnight on Sunday evening.

A rough tabulation put this year's proceeds at just over $5,300 a 25 per cent increase over last year. "We should be proud as Colbornites" was her comment upon reflection. "It's overwhelming that we've gone this far!"

There were 35-40 participants and about 15 volunteers staging the community event, which at times felt more like a party. Janice was particularly grateful for the support given by local businesses.

The highest donor and fundraisers were repeats from last year. Once again Custom Trailer and Leasing donated $200. Elizabeth Gilligan crushed her 2002 sponsor total with $1,080 handed in.
