

depicting this year's theme on behalf of the Colborne Legion. President, Joe Nelson makes the presentation.

Kenzie and Alexa Moran, Emma and Laura Turney made a crowd when they accepted the trophy from Rose Nelson for the Colborne Cramahe Figure Skating Club float in the 2004 parade. They were the best youth group.

Generous Joe! Legion President, Joe Nelson drew his own name in the draw for early-bird memberships. He set it aside and drew another. John Jakab was the beneficiary of Joe's largesse.

The long and the short of it is that Beverley Allison and Johanna Buttle collected the award for the best school float from Harry Jeninga. The prize was won by Colborne Public School.

A Hug for Doug
Newly retired Trent Hills' arena manager Doug Peters gets a warm hug from Warkworth resident Grace Dollimore at last week's party in his honour. More than 60 colleagues, friends and family members filled a private room in the Pioneer Pub last Thursday, roasting the popular recreationist before presenting him with golf and fishing equipment for his retirement pleasure.
