

Cars, cars, cars, as far as the eye can see. It was the biggest show ever, with cars up and down King St. and up Victoria Square.

George, that's a Plymouth! George Johnston and owner Bob Watson eye an original '41 Plymouth coupe.

Beauties: Some of the nearly 100 antique, classic and souped up vehicles at the car show Sunday.