

BAXTER AWARDS PRESENTED

Camilla Poot is a co-winner of the Baxter Scholarship for Science, presented to her by Harvey Thompson. Camilla took home six awards in recognition of her scholarship.

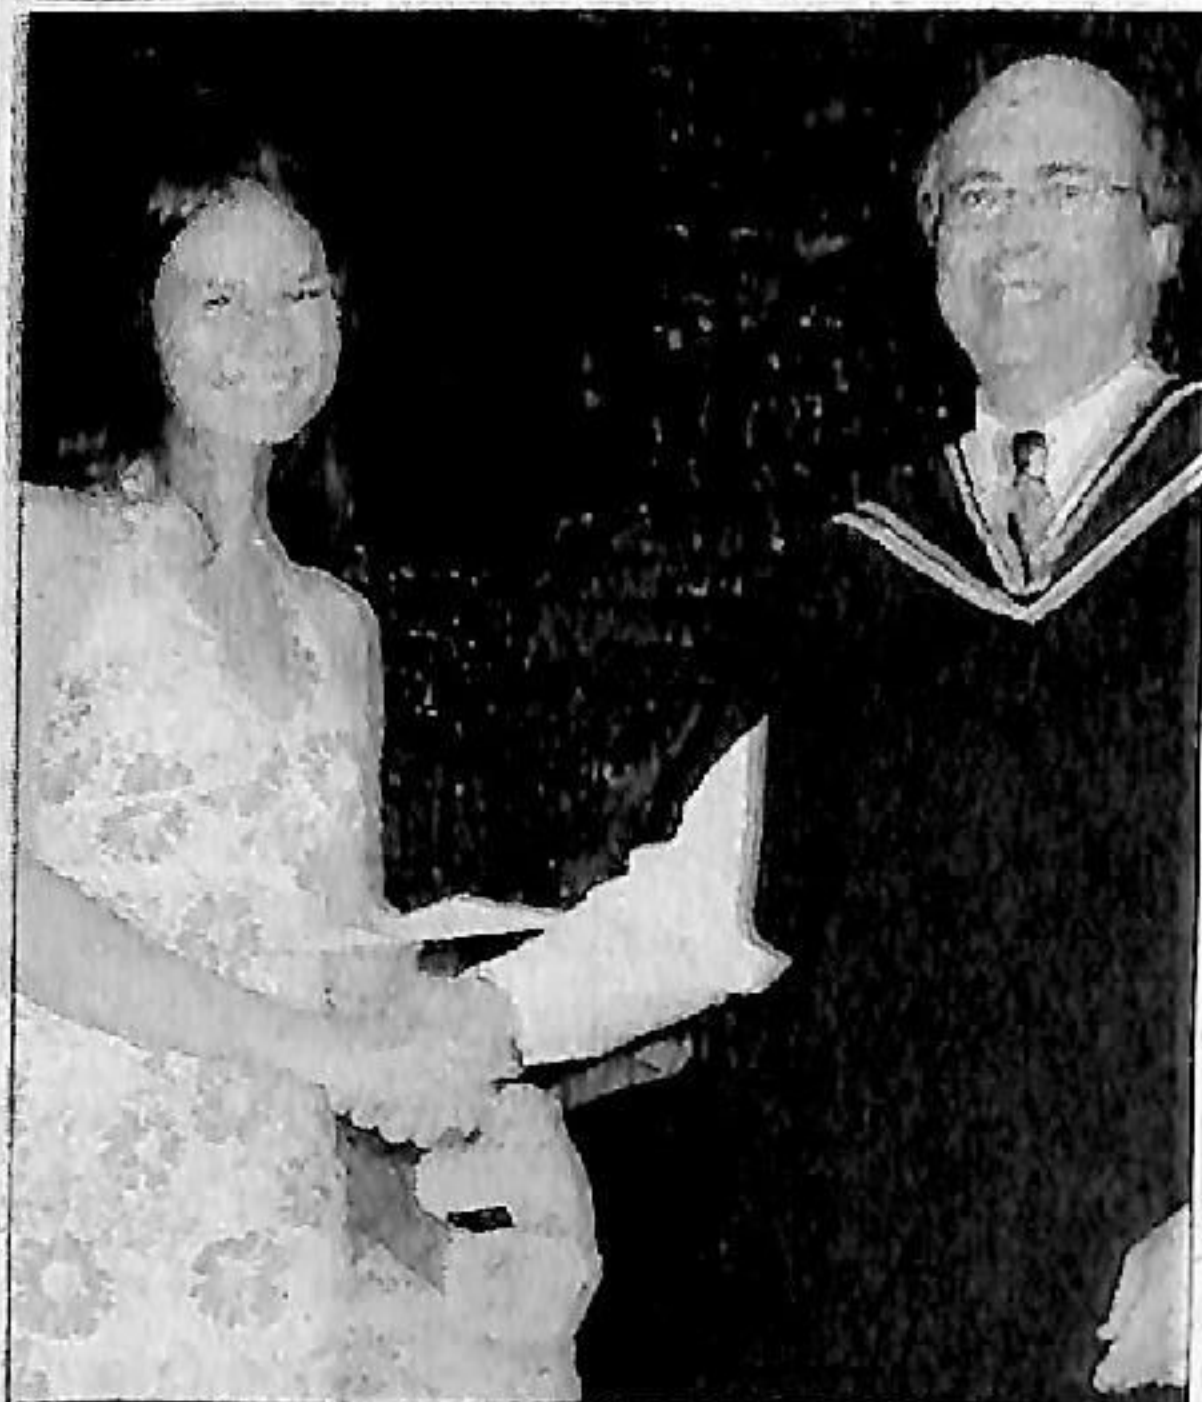

Ashley Payette is a co-winner of the Baxter Scholarship for Science which she is receiving from Harvey Thompson. Ashley also won the Codrington Women's Institute Award.

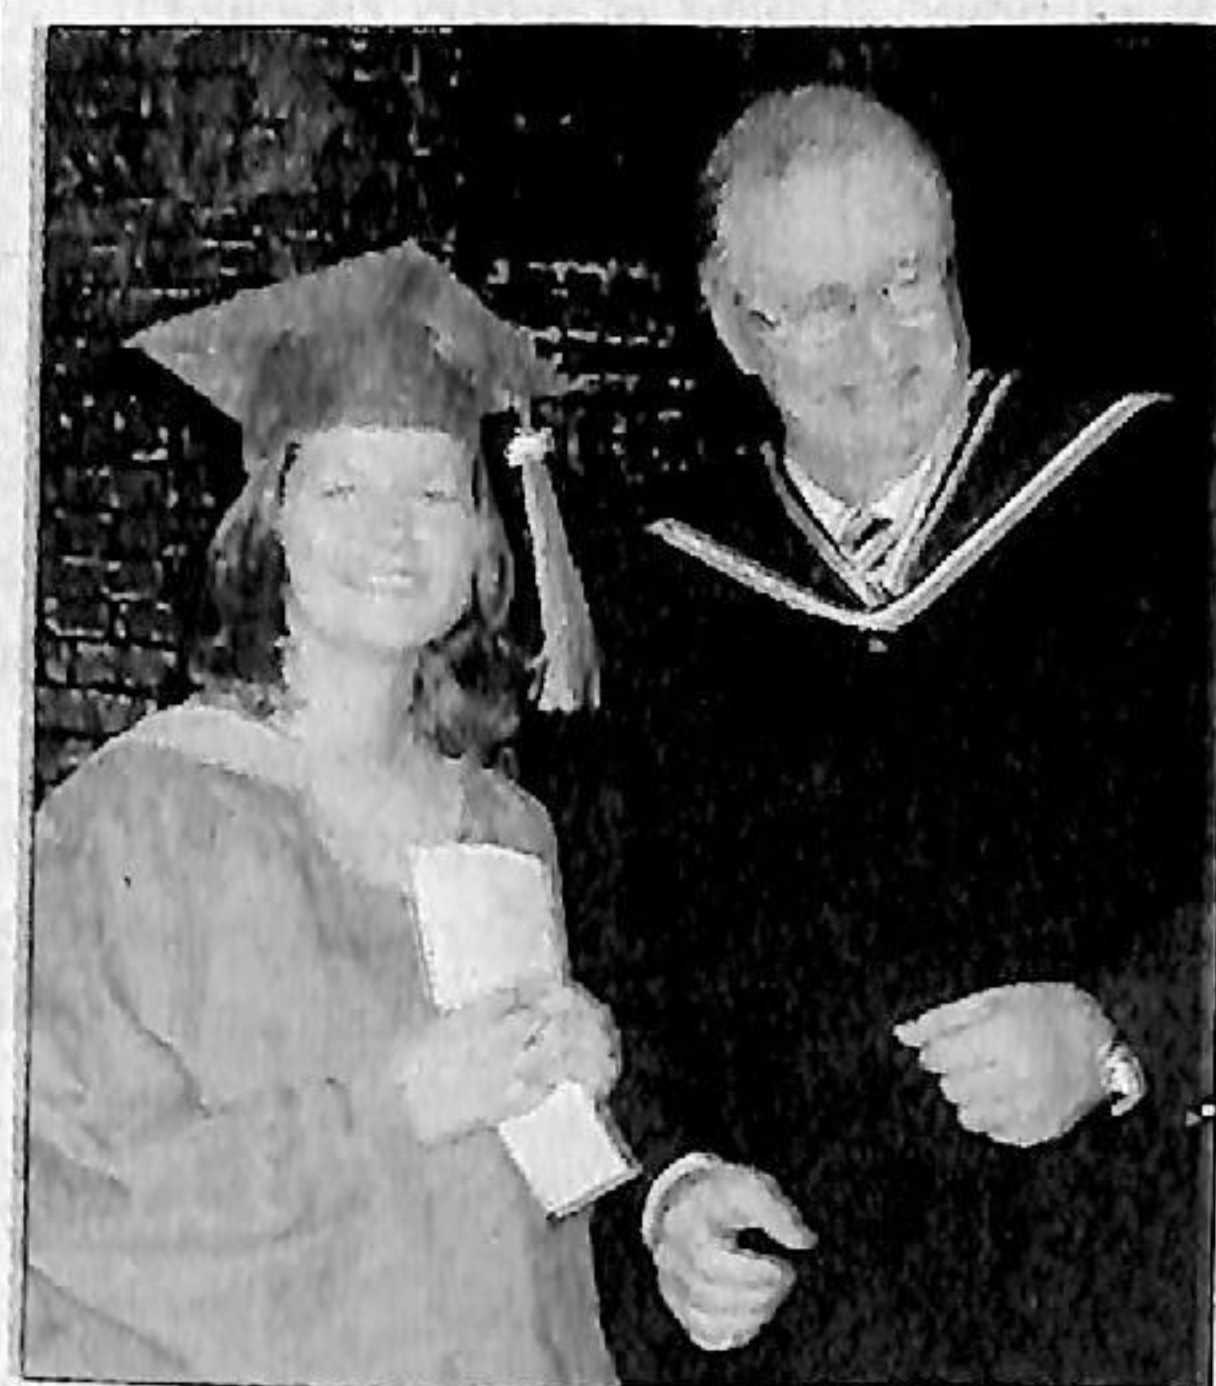

Jahn Van Egmond demonstrated athletic ability and leadership, taking home the Castleton Colborne Optimists Club Physical Education Scholarship and Coaches' Award.

There were lots of Colborne and Cramahe grads celebrating their high school careers and looking to the future. In front, from left are - Kristin Arthur, Megan Covert, Sarah Kilpatrick, Krista Kernaghan, Joshua Dunk. Second row - Kyle Kristensen, Jesse Anderson, Lindsay Eddy, Jim Pillsworth, Mike Owens, Matt McKinnon. Behind - Ken Roberts, Jahn Van Egmond, and Sean Saunders

Tanya Bolduc receives the Doris Boes Memorial Bursary from Don Britnell.

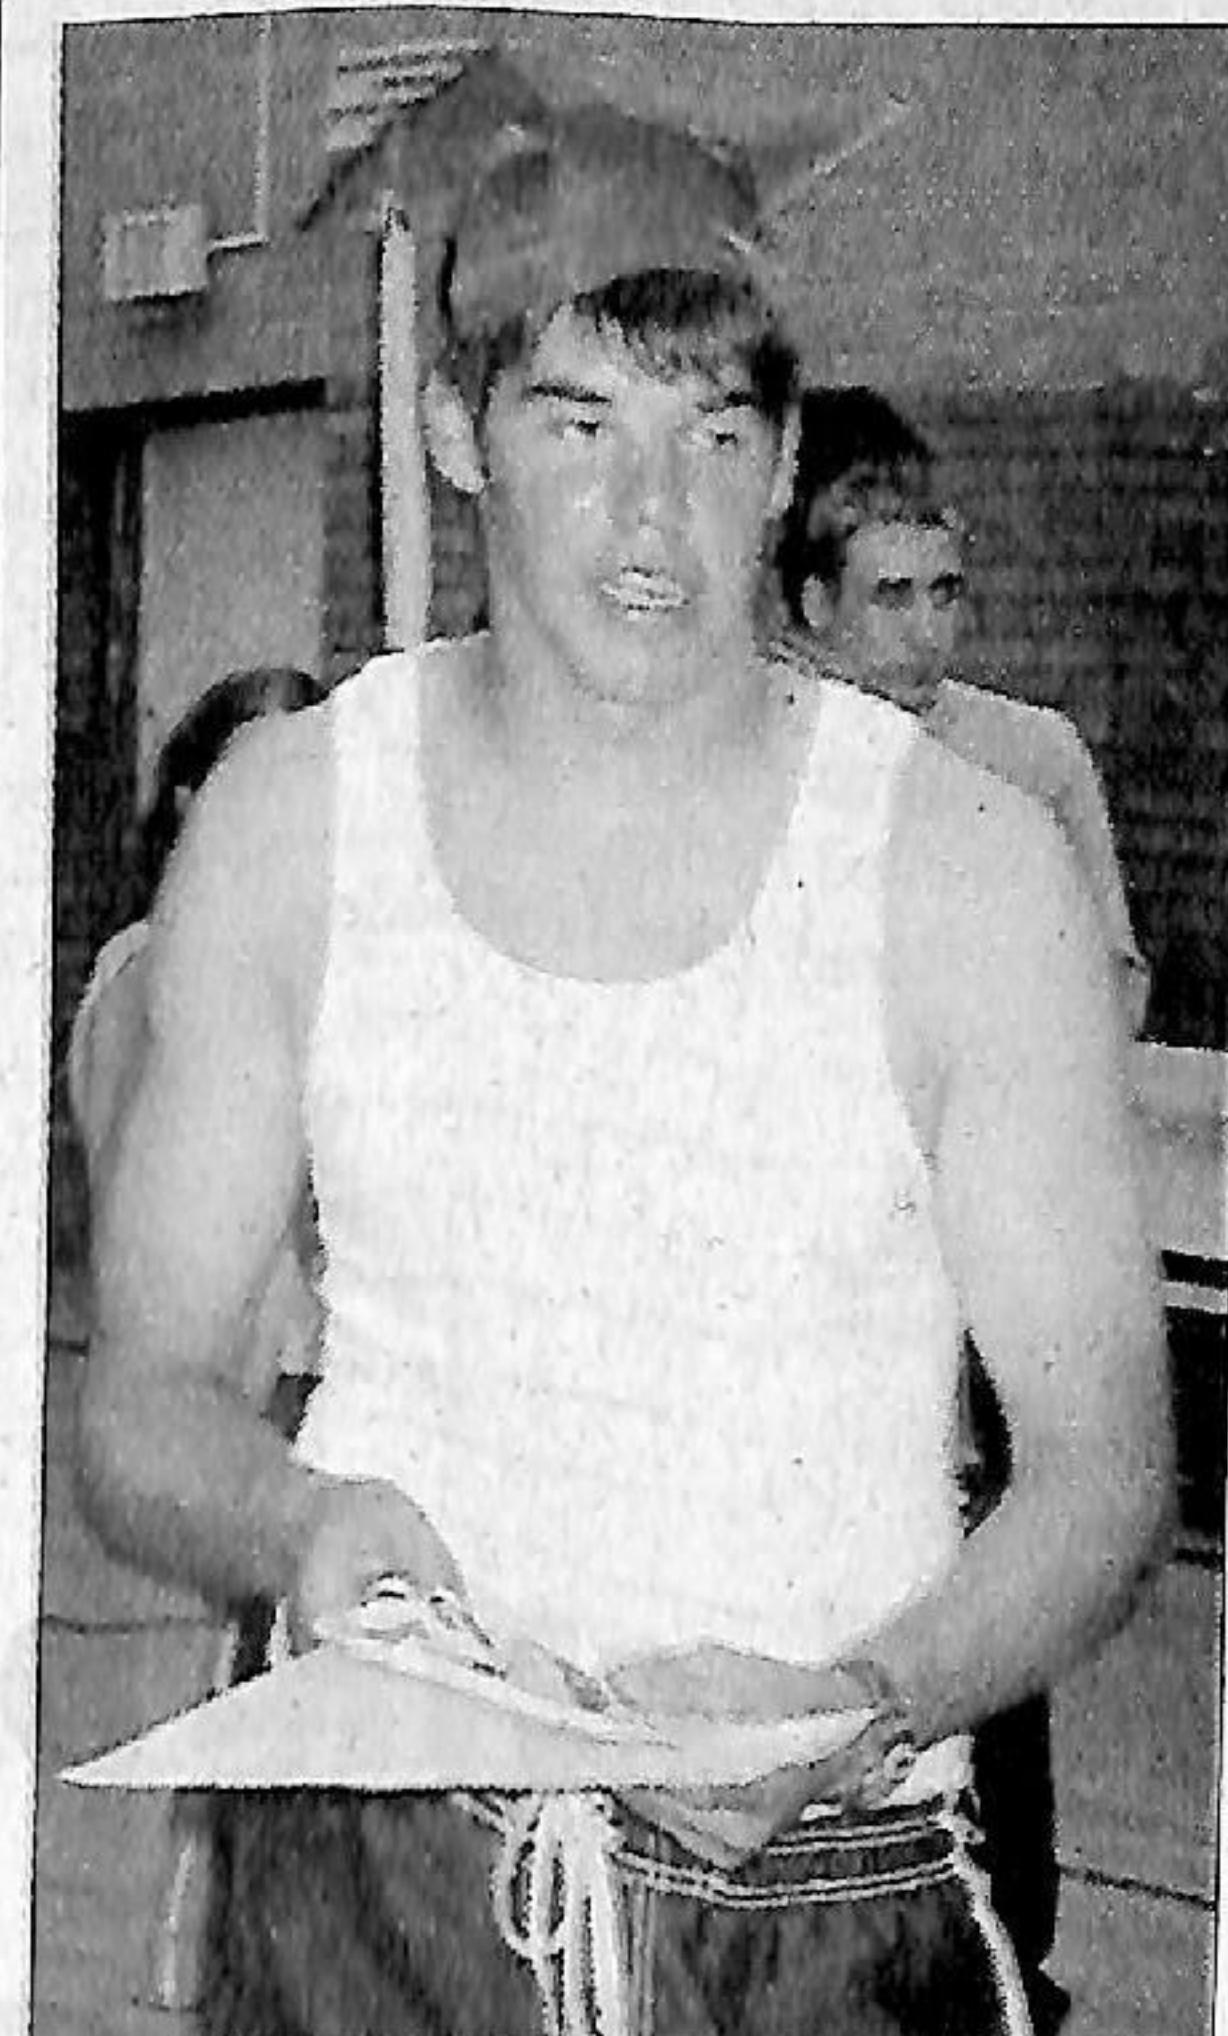

Krista Kernaghan is the recipient of the Alpha and Bessie Peister Bursary.

Valedictorian Megan Hennessy took the challenge of sums up the ENSS years.

Sarah Simpson's work was rewarded with a Dresser Wayne Bursary, presented by Peter Parmentier.

The ceremony's over. It's time to relax and head for the food. Nick Hutchinson knows how to dress casually.

Wendy Dadson accepts the Sir Sandford Fleming College Academic Excellence Scholarship.

Jim Pillsworth was the recipient of a pair of math awards. Above, he receives the Claude Thompson Mathematics Award from the donor. Jim also won the Austin Fulton Memorial Scholarship Award.

