

LOCAL NEWS

Voskamps celebrate 50 years

PHOTO BY BOB OWEN

Happy 50th! Hetty and Brian Voskamp shared their 50th anniversary with their family and friends in the crowded hall at Eden Church last Saturday.

Most of the four generations of the family were there for the photo on the 50th anniversary of Hetty and Brian Voskamp. In front, from left are - Mark Hayes, Amy Morton, Kattrina Greenhorne, Hetty with Jamie Gordon, Brian, Kaitlyn Semple, Kathy and Randy Voskamp. Behind - Mark and Karin Greenhorne, Jane and Bruce Morton with Dallin Pfefferle, Annette Semple, Sara Morton-Haynes, Kim Gordon, Mike Voskamp. Absent from photo - Shaylynn Pfefferle, Karli Voskamp, Max Greenfield, Nick Semple.

The Voskamps, both born in Holland, were married in Trenton on July 28, 1956.

For 25 years, they ran a poultry farm near Grafton. They now live on Telephone Rd. Hetty admits the family has had its share of ups and downs, but they've come through them all.

Asked for the secret to 50 years of marriage, Hetty replied, "Give and take - with more take."

Brian's response: "I've loved my dear wife for 50 years and I love her more every day."