

Midnight Madness: From left, Tom Darrington, Marilyn Black and Kate Marcellus join in the festivities of Midnight Madness.

COLBORNE CHRONICLE Feb. 1/07

Top o' the mornin' to you. From left, Don Prentice, Floyd Bilcox and Gerry Fox sport jaunty hats and cigars to celebrate St. Patrick's Day.

Merry Christmas from the staff of Fox IGA. This photo taken in the store when it was located on the north side of King Street has the staff in festive uniforms made by Lola Fox. In front, from left, are John Fox, Lyle Williams.

Second row, kneeling: Philip Ferguson, Tom Martin, Harry Kee.
Third row : Marie Mills, Norma Cowie, Fay Walker, Kathy Walker, Mary Pearson.

Fox fed kids hot dogs out the back door of the store.

The Fox family has been generous in other ways as well, rewarding long-serving staff.

Wayne and Anne McMurray went to Paris on an IGA trip one year. Don and Ada Prentice went to Switzerland on another trip personal service you don't get anywhere else.

Quality service has gone way back with the Fix businesses.

Years ago, Darrell walked groceries well down the street to people's homes and even up several flights of stairs at the Brunswick House.

sticker had to be removed. Now, it's all done in the store computer and cash registers.

When the store first opened, four registers were kept busy. Now, there is seldom more than one or two on the go.