

Letters to the Editor

Thanks for support

To the Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone involved in my CD release party!

I was overwhelmed by the love and support shown to me. In fact, it has taken a few days for me to come back down from Cloud Nine9. Thank you for so much that was amazing!

Thank you to all the musicians and singers who were just as excited as I was to be a part of it.

I have made some truly wonderful new friends. Thank you to our families and neighbours, for jumping in where ever needed to make it a success. Thank you to the artisans who ventured to our community from afar: how nice of you to share your work with us.

I want to thank all the girls in the kitchen at Rotary Hall; we have become well-acquainted over the years with different profit and non-profit events. You ladies are just such an integral part of this community, both off and on the job.

Thanks to Clinton Breau for being a superb bartender, always greeting with a smile: you have class.

Donna Rusaw, it would not have been so special without you, you know that. I have so enjoyed working with you in the past... I have watched you nurturing such love and growth in this township, and it has not gone unappreciated. You are loved by so many. It is a well-known fact now that you are the one to call when organizing an event. I just know your phone will not stop ringing. I just hope we don't lose you to another.

Thank you to our newspaper representatives of Colborne/Cobourg for "being there" over the years to keep our communities informed of news worth sharing.

Even our boys in blue were at the party. Thank you, just for being there!

I have so enjoyed being a part of these communities through the years. Thank you for everything,

Cheryl Casselman / Cramahe Twp.

Award is well-deserved

To the Editor:

There is no person more deserving of Citizen of the Year than Marion McComb. She is a Cramahe Township treasure and a tireless volunteer for whatever is needed.

Marion is also a very nice person with a wonderful heart who makes great meat pies. Congratulations, Marion.

Karen Nicol / Castleton

Editor's note: Marion McComb was nominated by Warren and Carole Brown.