

Shelter Valley Folk Festival is known for the number of signs it displays, both inside the grounds and along the roads leading to the event.

COBOURG DAILY STAR AUG 29/08

Above: The tents of volunteers are already set up at the top of the hill. In the distance the stage can be seen.

Left: From left, Deborah Hackett, Kyla McNeill and Mary Beth Hannah, with seven-week-old Kierin, work in the general kitchen cleaning up and getting ready to feed the volunteers.

Below: All the tents have been erected for the vendors who will set up today.

