

NORTHUMBERLAND TODAY
NOV. 12/09

Just perfect

Lorraine Telford of Trenton, left, won so many prizes at the 30th annual Perfect Pie Contest in Warkworth last Saturday she needed help from her son Terry to hold them all. Her trophies were awarded in categories including best fruit, best filled and the Perfect Pie, a filled maple syrup treat. Telford said she has been entering the contest for six years and works year-round perfecting pies for the competition. She is also the first back-to-back Perfect Pie winner in the history of the event. "I practice on different neighbours and family members. They are the taste testers," she says. "It's just the joy of competition because I'm my biggest competitor."

LOGEL, EDWARD Arthur of Grafton, Ontario died peacefully on Wednesday, November 11, 2009, at St Joseph's at Fleming in Peterborough in his 95th year. Survived by his loving wife of fifty-eight years, Mary Molloy. Loving father of John and Brenda, Bernadette Pettipas and George, Chris and Penny, Peter and Mary-Jo, Gerard and Betty-Ann. Treasured grandfather of Christopher and wife Andrea, Katherine and Chuck Smith, Matthew, Angela, Kathleen, Leah-Ann, Kristina, Edward, David and Maggie and Johanna. Great grandfather to Emma and Elissa. Also survived by his devoted sisters, Margaret and Kathleen Logel of Elmira, Ontario and over fifty nieces and nephews. Predeceased by son-in-law Grant Pettipas, his parents, George Logel and Christine Schiebel, as well as siblings Stella, Laura, Charlie, Alf, Oscar, Mary, Helen, Frank, Bill and Jerome. A man of diverse interests, Ed enjoyed reading, discussing politics and world affairs, studying scripture, walking long distances with Tippy, his border collie, researching the history and uses of medicinal herbs and plants, deep massage therapy and the antics of his grandchildren. Never influenced by outward appearances, Ed always looked beneath the surface to find the good in everyone, providing a steadfast example of Christianity for his family and friends. He took pleasure in making others laugh and often said that "a person's smile is a thing of great beauty". Fifty years before its benefits were known, Ed committed to organic farming, supplying his family and the surrounding area with healthy fruits and vegetables. Some may know him only as the "Don't Panic! Go Organic!" person. In lieu of flowers, donations to St. Joseph's at Fleming in Peterborough would be appreciated by the family.
Visitation at MacCOUBREY FUNERAL HOME, 30 King Street East, Cobourg from 2-4 and 7-9 pm on Sunday, November 15, 2009. A celebration of Ed's life will take place at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Grafton on Monday, November 16, 2009 at 11 am. Interment to follow at St. Mary's Cemetery, Grafton. Condolences received at www.maccoubrey.com

Northumberland News - November 13, 2009 | 25

Michael Nitsch sings the song Pass Me the Rolling Pin, Darling prior to the awards being announced.

Lorraine Telford, right, accepts the prize for best fruit pie.

Lois Cocek, right, won the trophy for the best apple pie.

Marg Newman, right, baked the best meringue pie.

Lorraine Telford, right, accepts the trophy for best maple syrup pie.

Heather Clark, centre, baked the best pumpkin pie.

Lois Cocek, centre, accepts the award for the best savory pie.

Jacqueline Beamish, centre received the award for best seniors pie.

Jasmin Beamish, centre, baked the best pie in the age 12 and under category.

Adam Petherick took top honours in the best men's open category.

Mackenzie Grant, right, won the trophy for best youth pie.

Jean Bryan, centre, wins the award for best Warkworth Chapter Members pie.

Heather Clark, centre, baked the best pecan pie.

Lorraine Telford, centre, accepts the big prize: the trophy for The Perfect Pie.

2