

localnews

■ NEW TRADITION: Village holds first Christmas parade

Grafton welcomes Santa Claus

PETE FISHER Northumberland Today

A light dusting of snow falling on the floats and bands made for a perfect evening Saturday as Grafton held its first Santa Claus parade. Members of the Grafton Legion Colour Guard parade down County Road 2 on Saturday evening for the first Santa Claus parade.

PETE FISHER Northumberland Today

The Corps 88 Army Cadets Band from Cobourg parades down County Road 2.

Alnwick/Haldimand Township Councillor John Logel waves from a carriage as he and other councillors head down County Road 2.

Alnwick/Haldimand Township's rescue unit is used for ice rescues.

PETE FISHER Northumberland Today
Youngsters ride the Eddystone Baptist Church float.