Northumberland travellers can access new travel website

Site provides travel info and emergency contacts

NORTHUMBERLAND -- A newly redesigned website could help those looking for the perfect winter getaway spot.

The website Travel.gc.ca provides international travel information, travel reports and advisories as well as emergency contact information, said Rick Norlock, MP for Northumberland-Quinte West. In addition the new "travel smart" mobile application will work while abroad without access to an Internet connection.

The new website combines information from 12 different governmental departments into a single, convenient online source to help keep travelling Canadians safe and informed. Canadians can also access the latest travel advice, crisis updates and emergency contact information through Travel.gc.ca's Twitter, Facebook, RSS feeds and e-mail updates.

NORTHUMBERLAND TODAY

In Loving Memory Of Pat Kernaghan

Dec. 16, 1929 - Dec. 26, 2001

Mom, did the sun shine brighter

Or was the sky a deeper blue

Or was it just a different world

When we shared our lives with you.

Forever is a long time

This we know is true

But that's how long our broken hearts

Will love and yearn for you.

We never ask for miracles

But today just one would do

To see our front door open

And our loving Mom walk through.

Forever Loved - Never Forgotten
