

Remuneration numbers corrected

Earlier in March we posted Cramahe totals for money paid out to members of council in 2011. But the figures provided by the township were not correct. Some expenses attributed to Mayor Marc Coombs should have been applied to Councillor Clinton Breau. It doesn't mean much in the big scheme of things, but it changes who has bragging rights as the cheapest member of council.

Councillor Breau has been dethroned and replaced by Councillor Ed Van Egmond, largely because Councillor Van Egmond does not submit mileage expenses. Mayor Coombs is the other member who chooses not to submit mileage.

The new totals are

Mayor Coombs - $23,496 (including base pay of $22,000)

Deputy Mayor Jim Williams - $18,543 (including base pay of $14,000)

Councillor Clinton Breau - $13,933 (including base pay of $12,000)

Councillor Ed Van Egmond - $13,643 (including base pay of $12,000)

Councillor Pat Westrope - $17,143 - including base pay of $12,000 and $685 paid by Lower trent Conservation)

Public speakers from Colborne Public School and Northumberland Hills Public School will be heading to the Legion in Campbellford this Saturday to compete regionally in the Legion Public Speaking Contest.

Sam Short and Tiffany Best will represent Colborne, after winning their divisions at the Colborne Legion. Sam's speech was based on the story, "A Worm in my Pocket". He will compete in the Primary Division. Tiffany will give her speech on "Black History" in the Intermediate Division.

Breanna Bradshaw also won in Colborne, in the Junior Division and will be the Northumberland Hills rep. in Campbellford. She will speak on "What it means to be a Girl Guide". Pictured with Breanna in the Northumberland Hills photo are - Dante Piccolo (Obesity), Ali McLean (Women's Ice Hockey), Mitchell Paterson (Gingers), and Morgan Murray (Barbie).
