■ EQUESTRIAN SHOW: RCMP Musical Ride has local connection

NORTHUMBERLAND TODAY JUNE 15/12

Thousands enjoy the Ride in Roseneath

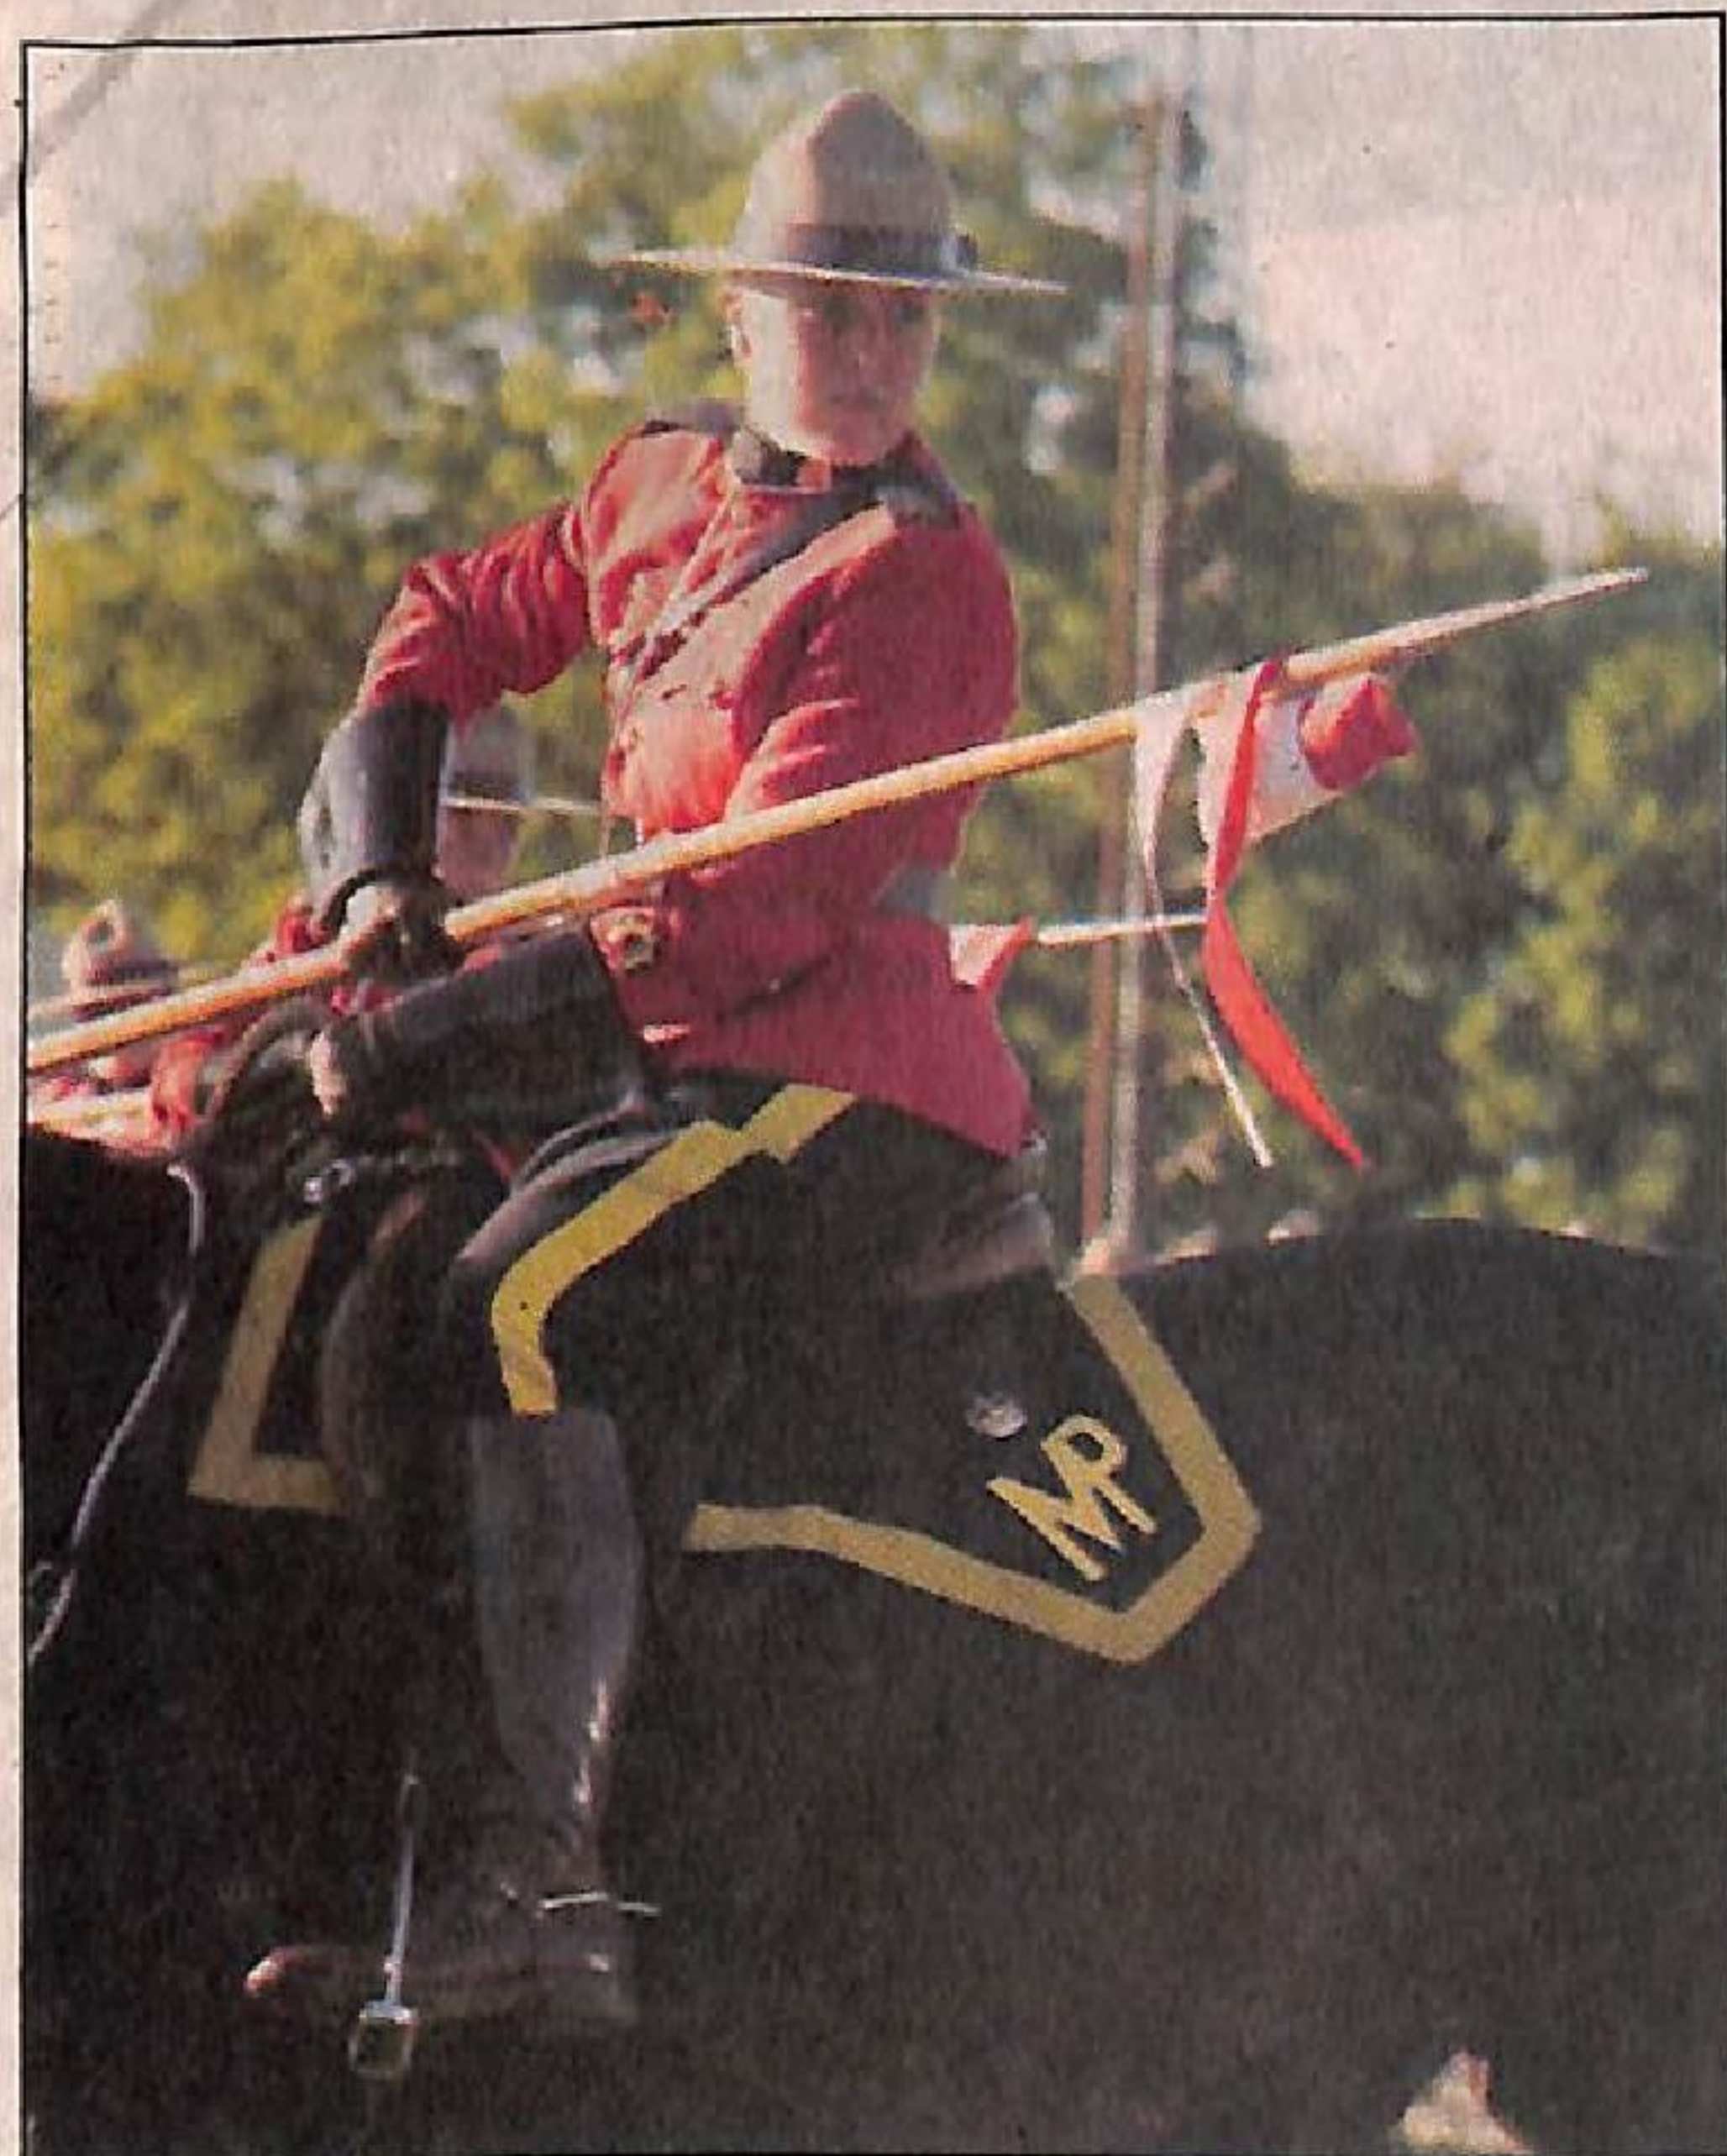

ROSENEATH - Alderville First Nation resident Jason Marsden brought his work home with him Wednesday evening.

Marsden is a member of the RCMP Musical Ride, which performed to a crowd estimated at more than 2,000 people at the Roseneath Fairgrounds.

A special treat for the team members was a ride on the vintage Roseneath Carousel. Riders said it was the first time in their memory that members of the Musical Ride had had the opportunity to mount a carousel horse instead of their equine partners.

Wednesday's performance was sponsored by Alderville First Nation, the Roseneath Agricultural Society and the Roseneath Carousel.
