policebrief

COLBORNE - Eight suspects in an incident at HD Supply on Monday made appear in Ontario Court of Justice in Cobourg yesterday.

Northumberland OPP were notified in the early hours of Monday morning that a private security firm was watching, via closed-circuit video from Orlando, Florida, a break-in happening at the business in Colborne's industrial park. Police were told a number of suspects were inside the building, cutting lengths of copper wire.

Police responded to the scene and, after tracking the suspects, took eight men into custody.

The men have been charged with break and enter to commit an indictable offence, possession of break-in instruments and theft over $5,000.

The charged parties are: 38-year-old Zsolt Bandula, 32-year-old Sandor Lakatos, 43-year-old Tamas Nemeth, 20-year-old Sandor Rezsnyues and 26-year-old Ferenc Szibeti, all from Toronto, as well as 27-year-old Laszlo Burai and 28-year-old Laszlo Miklos, both of Guelph.

In addition to the three charges listed above, 19-year-old Zsolt Dolanyi of Toronto is also charged with failing to comply with undertaking. As well, Dolanyi, Bandula and Lakatos have been charged with committing an offence for a criminal organization.

The OPP investigation is continuing.
