

Music and dancing at the Auction Barn Jamboree

Lynn and Lyle Sherwin enjoy dancing in the Keeler Centre as the sun sets on a Friday night.

Photos by Pete Fisher Northumberland Today

The eighth annual Auction Barn Jamboree took place last weekend, wrapping up on Sunday at the Keeler Centre in Colborne.

A golf cart was one way to get around the Keeler Centre over the weekend.

Relaxing, enjoying the weather and friendship. The grounds of the Keeler Centre were once again filled with trailers of all sizes allowing people to enjoy the fine weather and beautiful music.

Elva, 79, and Doug Reid, 80, from Havelock enjoy a nice Friday night supper outside their camper at the Keller Centre. "We love it here and we'll never give up this spot," said Doug.

Dick Gosselin (from Peterborough) and Janis Carter (from Lindsay) enjoy dancing in the Keeler Centre.