Cramahe firefighter Brad Reynolds will be doing more than cheering on Canadian athletes at the 2012 Olympics in London, England. He will be participating as a volunteer medical first responder with St. John Ambulance at the 2012 Olympics in London.

He will be leave Canada on August 2 and will provide coverage until the closing ceremonies on August 12

After a couple of wind-down days he will return to Canada on August 15.

We will try to spend a few minutes with Brad after his return so that he can tell his story to our readers.

It's official.

Cramahe Township has its first traffic light. The light, at the corner of Purdy Rd. and Big Apple Dr. became operational on June 25. It is part of a major intersection enhancement to accommodate current and future traffic from the Colborne Industrial Park and commercial ventures which are located south of the 401. The work was contracted out by Northumberland County as Big Apple Dr. is a county road.
