

Official Plan and see if the province noted the change.

Ms. Sadler was pessimistic about the chances of this happening. If it did allow the 2001 date, many properties in Cramahe which had had two severances on them since 1985 would be allowed further severances.

Council voted 4-0 to accept the suggestion of Councillor Breau and three other changes to the Official Plan. There will be a public meeting to discuss the changes before the plan is submitted to the province for approval.
