The following press release was issued on February 20 from the Township of Cramahe.

It is with great sadness that we have received the news of the passing of Walter Rutherford. Mr. Rutherford had served numerous terms as the Reeve of the Village of Colborne. After politics he continued to be active in the community and with volunteer activities benefiting those less fortunate among us.

Mayor Marc Coombs commented "Walter was very active with the Christmas Hamper Program and with his church in the village. He certainly always gave back to the community and I'll certainly miss him, as will many."

The flag at the Town Hall in Colborne will be lowered to half-mast in remembrance of Mr. Rutherford.
