

LEGION LINES: War exhibit runs until Dec. 3

The Remembrance Day service will take place at 11 a.m. at the cenotaph in Victoria Square.

That evening, a dinner will take place starting at 6 p.m. All veterans and spouses are free, everyone else is $20 per person. Tickets are at the branch. Please pick them up in advance if possible. Black Dress Catering will be catering the dinner. Please call the branch or drop in to reserve your place.

... The November mid-month dinner on the 18th will feature ham and scallop potatoes, veggies, soup, bread or rolls, tea, coffee and dessert. All that for just $13 each. Veterans are $10. Everyone is welcome at any of our dinners.

... Northumberland Goes to War: if you get a chance to stop into the Art Gallery in either Colborne or Cobourg, you can see displays of WW1 memorabilia and view the first Cramahe Moments film featuring the story of Capt. Charles Rutherford. The displays will be available until Dec. 3.

... The Early Bird Campaign continues until Nov. 30. Pay your dues before then and be part of the Early Bird Draw on Jan. 1. The winner of the draw will have their 2018 dues paid by the branch. Dues are $55 for the year. They need to be paid by Dec. 31.

... The hamper program is underway. On Wednesdays and Thursdays from 2 to 5 p.m., applications for hampers will be taken at the branch. The last day for taking applications will be Thursday, Dec. 1.

Low-income families need to bring along identification, proof of income and proof of address when making application. If you know someone who should apply please let them know.

At the time of taking the hamper applications we'll also be looking after Giving Tree applications for the children under 18. The last day for getting the children on the Giving Tree is Nov. 24.

If you need more information you can call Patti at 905-355-2680.

... The November 8-Ball Tourney is Sun. Nov. 27. Everyone is welcome to play, it's a fun afternoon more than competitive. Register at 11:30 a.m. and play starts at noon. Lunch is available.

There was a strong Cramahe Township representation at the Nov. 3 opening of the Northumberland Went To War 1914-19 exhibition opening at the Art Gallery of Northumberland in Cobourg. From left, Cramahe Twp. Councillor Don Clark, Cramahe Twp. Library CEO Mary Norton, Colborne Legion President Patti May and exhibition curatorial committee member Lenna Broatch of Cramahe Archives compare notes. Cramahe Twp. Mayor Marc Coombs was also in attendance.
