

BOOK COVER

The board for this cover was donated by the curator. A local man by the name of Roy Gibson made the cover ready for the artist.

Mrs. Olive Lamb, owner of the Art Gallery in Dunchurch, very kindly used her skill and painted the farm scene on the front cover. She was born in Hagerman, daughter of the late Dave and Anne Simpson.

Mr. Harvey Wing, North Star Editor, gave a generous contribution of paper. Herein is a tribute to this friend.

A true Parry Sounder, named Wing
Seriously questioned this history thing;
But by his help which was free
Assisted the committee to agree,
After two ladies visited his offices,
This brought us good luck, we thank him
again, for assisting these novices.
