

- Oct. 11, 2005 - Lois Allender
Rural Women's Day October 15th.
Prog: The Struggles of Rural Women
Motto: A friend is someone who knows all about you and likes you just the same
Roll Call: Name a current women's issue
- Nov. 8, 2005 - Heather McEwen
Prog: Christmas Folk Art - Renee
Motto: Kindness is a language that the deaf can hear and the blind can see
Roll Call: If you were ruler of the world, what change would you like to make that would make our world a better place
- Dec. 13, 2005 - Janice Bray
Prog: Christmas Cheer Baskets
Motto: I have learned that being kind is more important than being right.
Roll Call: Bring a gift under $10.00 (preferably home made) for gift exchange
Bring you toiletry bag
- Jan 10, 2006 - Lynda McArthur
Prog: Basic Shelf Cooking - Heather
Motto: Be like a postage stamp and stick to one path till you get there
Roll Call: Bring a stamped envelope and card for the goodwill convener
- Feb. 14, 2006 - Renee Crossman
Prog: Calligraphy
Motto: Buried seeds grow, buried talents never do
Roll Call: How do you use your talents
- Mar 14, 2006- Janice Bray
Prog:
Motto:
Roll Call:
- Apr. 11, 2006 - Mona Bray
Prog: Annual Meeting
Motto: Seek joy in what you give, not in what you get
Roll Call: Pay your Dues $20.00
- May 9, 2006- Heather McEwen
Prog:
Motto:
Roll Call: Your interest should be in your future - after all you are going to spend the rest of your life there