

W.I. PRESENTATION: It was a solemn moment for Renée Crossman, on left, as she accepted posthumously the Women's Institute (W.I.) lifetime membership certificate from W.I. district treasurer Janice Bray, for her mother-in-law, Jewell Crossman. The presentation was made during the 88th annual Parry Sound District W.I. meeting on Saturday, May 24th. Jewell Crossman, a member of the Dunchurch W.I., joined the organization when she was 18 and remained a member until her death last November, at the age of 62. The annual meeting was held at the Ahmic Harbour Community Centre with W.I. representatives including Bloomfield, Dunchurch, Emsdale-Scotia, Parry Sound and South River.

2003 Photo by Astrid Taim