

You're a collection of all of your years,
your stories, your glories,
your troubles, and tears.
Tales of a lifetime live in your eyes.

You are ninety years wise.

You're a connection to faraway places
that live on in thoughts
of good times and dear faces.
Your history shines in you.
Fills you with light.

You are ninety years bright.

You're a reflection of all that you've known.
Of people who've loved you.
Of kindness you've shown.
Of all that you are.
And of all that you do.

Many good wishes to you!

Happy Birthday
