

Hugh Gibson Family

Hugh Gibson married Ellen Montgomery in 1873. They had a family of eight children and thirty-three grandchildren. John Gibson married Tena Farley and settled in Moomsin, Manitoba; Katherine (Kitty) married John Sword and lived in Beatrice, Ontario; Lindsay married Edith Cleal and settled in Grimsby, Ontario, on a fruit farm; Hilliard married Anne (maiden name unknown) and settled in Grimsby, Ontario, on a fruit farm; Mary married George Jefferies of St. Catherines, Ontario; Liza married Bob Moore and lived in Burks Falls, Ontario; Priscilla married Sam Arney of Calgary, Alberta.

Robert Gibson and Irene Osborne of Spence, Ontario, were married on November 9, 1918, in Parry Sound and lived in Dunchurch. They lived on a farm in Croft Township on Highway 520, north of Dunchurch from 1918 to 1955. While living on the farm their home was known as a stop-over place to rest the weary traveller and his horse when the trips were being made through to Loring and Golden Valley and other points north. In 1955 the couple built a home in Dunchurch; this was a beauty spot with many colourful flower gardens surrounding their home. Robert Gibson retired from the position of Patrolman for the Dept. of Highways in 1963.

In 1968 Robert and Irene Gibson celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in the Dunchurch Community Hall. Irene Gibson is now a resident of Belvedere Heights in Parry Sound.

Robert and Irene Gibson always took an active part in Dunchurch Community Activities.

There are seven children and sixteen grandchildren in Robert Gibson's family. Etta married Ivan Quinn of McKellar and now lives in Scarborough, Ontario; Harold married Doris Browett of Hamilton and lives in Dunchurch; Viola married Mel Campbell and lives in Orillia, Ontario; Roy is a bachelor; Arnold married Ann Kusmeluk of Parry Sound, Ontario; Norman married Loy North and lives at R.R. 2, Dunchurch; Mark is also a bachelor.
