

THE COMPILING OF TWEEDSMUIR HISTORY: The Glen Orchard Women's Institute were the hosts at the Glen Orchard Community Centre, for the gathering of representatives of ten Muskoka Women's Institutes, comparing notes on their Tweedsmuir histories, which are histories done of their specific areas. The curators of the branches showed the histories that they had collected and recorded. From left to right in the front row are Annie Bennet, Port Carling; Mabel Peacock, South Macaulay; Bessie Skinner, Windermere; Edith Forth, Falkenburg; in the back row, Marie Carter, Port Carling; Loretta Fountain, Torrance; Marjorie Lowden-District Convener; Ruth Stanier, Bala; Evelyn Longhurst, Windermere; Mary Hardy, Glen Orchard, and Florence Anderson, Port Carling.

AN IMPORTANT WORKSHOP was enjoyed by seven women's institutes this past week. Curators of the Tweedsmuir History are [L to R]

Annie Bennett, Mary Hardy, Ruth Stanier, and back row, Florence Anderson, Marjorie Lowden, Mabel Peacock, Marie Carter and Edith Forth.

Attending the workshop were Tweedsmuir History curators from the seven W.I. branches mentioned above. The purpose of the workshop was to discuss and compare methods of com-

Seven W.I.s enjoy history workshop

Members of the Women's Institute from Bala, Torrance, Port Carling, Windermere, Falkenburg, South Macaulay and Glen Orchard attended a Tweedsmuir History workshop on Monday conducted by district curator Marjorie Lowden, at the piling historical information of a local nature and preserving it for the education and enjoyment of future generations.

Glen Orchard Community Centre.

Mrs. Lowden indicated the Workshop was a success both as an information sharing session and a social event.