

HEADLINES OF THE YEAR 1907

- January - Reeve W. L. Parrish, Council Hutcheson, Allison, Waddell and Robinson.
- February- Former Port Perry boy, Byron Crandell, appointed chief Engineer of Goodman Mfg. Co., Chicago, Ill. Salary $1,000.
- April- G.T.R. smash-up near Myrtle. Several coaches derailed, but no one hurt.
- May- "The Stranger" bought in its first boom of logs this season.
-Jones and Son give up business in Port Perry.
Mr. Jones will devote his time to lumber interests
- June- Joseph Bigelow obtained building known as woolen mill from Mr. John Stovin. Mr. Bigelow announces intention of using it for apple evaporator.
- July- W. G. Monet plans to plant big apple orchard just south of town.
-High School hold re-union.
- Sept- D. & A.J. Carnegie purchase business of Jas. Carnegie, inc. flour mill, grist mill, planing mill, saw mill, lumber and timber limits, also the tug "The Stranger".
-G.T.R. head-on collision at Myrtle. none hurt.
-S. Farmer purchases printing business. Former editor Mr. W. H. Cline returns to ministry.
- Oct.- New branch of Western Bank to be opened in Backstock.
-E. H. Purdy purchased grocery and confectionary Store of J. A. Lane.
-Mr. Dunk has bought into Jones & Co. Now to be known as Jones, Dunk & Co.